INTRODUCTION

Brindle Co.
The district covered by the two registers of Brindle and Samesbury, now presented, forms roughly a triangle between the three towns of Preston, Blackburn, and Chorley; Brindle, lying almost exactly in the centre of the area, and Samesbury towards the north on the high road from Preston to Blackburn, being about three miles from the former, and five miles from the latter. It was originally intended to include the registers of Brownedge, which adjoins on the west, but it would have made the volume too bulky. The Brindle registers will be found to be amongst the most interesting of any yet published by the Society. Commencing in 1721-2, which is about 50 years earlier than the majority of Lancashire registers, there are not only a large number of baptismal entries for each year, but also lists of marriages and burials from the same early date, which is most unusual, and of great importance to the genealogist. There are also lists of conversions which is an uncommon feature, and of confraternities and confirmations. The amount of family information given in the burials 1722-1766 when the registers were kept by Dom William Placid Naylor, O.S.B., is quite unique, and makes one regret that other missionaries did not keep their records in the same interesting way.

It is only right that a tribute should here be paid to the memory of the late Mr Joseph Gillow, to whom the Society owes such a debt of gratitude. Without an equal in the post-reformation history of Catholicity in this country, he was, of course, especially at home when tracing the fortunes of Catholic families in his own county of Lancashire, very few of the older families of any class not having been the subject of his most interesting notes in the various publications of the Society, and particularly in Volumes IV (Burghley's map of Lancashire), VI (Recusants under Charles II), and the four volumes of Lancashire registers.

Mr Gillow had promised to write the historical notes for both of the missions now printed, and to annotate the entries, but, owing to the unusual time taken in getting this volume through the press, he was barely able to complete Brindle before his last illness overtook him, and we are left to mourn one who has done yeoman service in the cause of Catholic research, and whose loss, even yet, is hardly realised.—R.I.P.

After the death of Mr Gillow, Dom Joseph Edward Smith, O.S.B., of Ampleforth Abbey, who had already very kindly corrected all the proofs from the originals, again came to the rescue of the Society, undertaking at short notice to write the historical notes for Samesbury, and the Society is very greatly indebted to him for the able way in which he has carried out this task. J. P. SMITH.

P.S.—Re the note on page 305, attention may be called to the Samesbury register, in which, out of thirteen baptismal entries of the Hubberstey family (pp. 313-329) no less than fifteen different spellings are used. The same family appears in the Brindle registers, but Dom Placid Naylor always gives it as Huberche.

LANCASHIRE, 1721-2 to 1834.

HISTORICAL NOTES BY JOSEPH GILLOW.

Brindle

is a township and parish in the hundred of Leyland, co. Lancaster, seven miles south-west of Blackburn and six miles south-east of Preston. It lies to the south of Walton-le-Dale, and on every other side is bounded by the parish of Leyland, to which it originally belonged. It appears to have derived its name from the British Bryn, a spring, with the suffix hull, or hill. Through the marriage of Joan, daughter and heiress of Sir Peter de Bryn, of Brynhill, the manor of Brindle, as well as that of Bryn and Ashton-in-Makerfield, in the parish of Winwick, in the hundred of West Derby, passed to her husband, William Gerard, whose father and namesake died at Eaton Hall in 1352, and since that period the principal seat of the family, now represented by Lord Gerard, has been at Bryn, subsequently re-named Garswood. The Gerards retained the lordship of Brindle till the middle of the 18th century, when it passed by purchase into the family of Cavendish, and in 1819 Lord George Cavendish, afterwards Earl of Burlington, became lord, and the Dukes of Devonshire have since held the presentation to the rectory. Descendants of the Gerards, usually spelling their name Gerrard, are very numerous in the locality. But before proceeding with the history of Brindle, a word must be said about the adjoining township of—

Hoghton.

Dominating Brindle, in the parish of Leyland, on the crest of the hill, stands Hoghton Tower, the lordly seat of the Hoghtons, whose present representative, Sir James de Hoghton, Bart., resides in the castle (Haydock Papers; C.R.S. iii). During the earlier portion of the reign of Elizabeth it was a centre of catholicity, and at the re-opening of the Tower after the extensive additions and alterations effected between 1563 and 1565 by its most distinguished lord, Thomas Hoghton, subsequently an exile for his 'Blessed Conscience,' his great friend, William Allen, later cardinal, Vivian Haydock, lord of Cottam and finally priest and exile, besides many other notable priests and confessors, were present at the celebrations in the domestic chapel, to which they were summoned by the ancient bell brought from the suppressed chantry of Assheton-under-Lyne, bearing the inscription Benedicta sit sancta Trinitas. It was a relic of the lord of Hoghton's maternal ancestors, his mother having been the co-heiress of Sir Thomas Assheton and wife of Sir Richard Hoghton. Within four years the government of Elizabeth, alarmed by such manifestations of the absolute refusal of Lancashire folk to embrace the new religion, summoned many of the leading gentry to appear before an ecclesiastical inquisition at Lathom, increased the severity of the penal laws, imprisoned notable adherents of the ancient faith, and necessitated the lord of Hoghton's flight into exile at Antwerp. He died at Liège in 1580, at the age of 63, and was buried in the church of St. Gervais under a handsome monument surmounted by the Hoghton arms, quartered with those of Assheton, with the appropriate motto of the family—Malgré le Tort. In the concluding words of the Hoghton ballad, entitled "The Blessed Conscience," attributed to the exile's personal friend, Richard Verstegan—

"Hys life a myroure was to all,
Hys death wythout offence ;
Confessor, then, lett us hym call,
O blessed conscyence !"

His wife was Anne, daughter of Sir Thomas Gerard, of Bryn, and thus he was inseparably connected with Brindle. She seems, however, to have predeceased him, and meanwhile the Tower was administered by the exile's faithful brother, to whom in the ballad he bids—

"Fayr wel, my broder Richard trewe, Whom I dyd love soe wel"

and under his administration holy sacrifice continued in the chapel.

His daughter, Jane, became the wife of James Bradshaigh, of Haigh Hall, whose descendant, when a minor, was taken possession of by the lord-lieutenant of the county, and brought up a protestant, his representative at the present day being the Earl of Crawford and Balcarres, of Haigh Hall.

Immediately after the exile's death, Hoghton Tower was visited at Eastertide, 1581, by Blessed Edmund Campion, the famous Jesuit martyr, who also stayed with Sir John Southworth at Samlesbury Hall and the Talbots at Salesbury Hall (Simpson, Edm. Campion, ed. 1867, p. 188), and this venerable priest preached in the ancient chapel attached to the castle with such wonderful fire and eloquence that many leading gentry of the county flocked to hear him. In the words of "A Songe of the Blessed martire ffather Campion of the Societie of Jesus" (John Breveley, Priest, MSS., apud me ; Pollen, Acts of English Martyrs, 29)—

"The Tower had never man that stood in more defense,
More farre from foile, more full of fayth or more sensere of sence."

The excitement caused by the famous Jesuit's preaching did not escape the notice of the Queen's Council. Catholic prisoners were used with greater severity, and searches of greater strictness were made for those not apprehended. A few months later Campion was arrested, and the Earl of Derby apprehended Sir John Southworth, as well as the late exile's brother, Richard Hoghton, still in charge of the Tower, which was raided and a number of papers seized. The latter was examined relative to the great Jesuit's visit with Bro. Ralph Emerson, his attendant. Though Mr. Hoghton survived this imprisonment, he was pursued with relentless persecution to the end of his long life.

After Thomas Hoghton's death, the estate passed to his next brother, Alexander, of Lea Hall, who died in 1581 before he took possession of the Tower, upon which his half-brother, Thomas Hoghton the younger, succeeded to the family inheritance. The latter was slain in 1589 at The Lea, by the Baron of Newton, frequently called Baron of Walton-le-Dale, after which his son, Sir Richard Hoghton, then a boy, was, at the instigation of the lord-lieutenant of the county, given in ward to Sir Gilbert Gerard, of Gerard's Bromley, co. Stafford, father of the first baron of that title, and the representative of the protestant branch of the Gerards of Bryn. Sir Gilbert brought him up a protestant, and married him to his daughter Catharine. Thus, like other ancient catholic families, the Hoghtons were robbed of their Faith. Thus Hoghton Tower ceased to be the centre of catholicity in this locality, and the missionaries had to seek shelter in the houses of such as clung to the Faith. From this period the descent of the mission at Brindle may be traced as follows:

Brindle.

"In the way from Brindle Church to Clayton Green," says Dr. Kuerden, the Lancashire antiquary, "nere the brok cald Rodburn, standeth a fayr stone building, the inheritance of Mr. Thomas Walmsley." Richard Walmsley, of Sholley Hall in Clayton-le-Dale, Esq., married Ellen, daughter of William Gerard, Esq., of Radburn, and was buried at Blackburn, March 17, 1678-9, aged 80. His second surviving son, Thomas, eventually succeeded to Sholley. James Gerard was residing at Radburn in 1597, according to an ancient MS. pedigree of the Gerards of Haighton, and his grandson, Evan Gerard, gent., in 1640 "was the owner of a good estate in Brindle called The Holt, which was sold to the late Thomas Walmsley, Esq., of Ashton." About this time the Gerard family had acquired an estate in Haighton, where one branch of the family eventually settled, their residence being known as Gerard's Hall, and finally as Haighton House after a new mansion was erected by Evan Richard Gerard, Esq., in 1821 (C.R.S. vi, 98). Other members of the family, however, continued to hold property in Brindle, their residence being at St. Helen's Well.

Previous to this, Oliver Gerard, of Brindle, had leased to William Chorley, of Chorley Hall, gent., property called Denham Bank, and this is referred to in William Chorley's will bearing date Dec. 13, 1585 (Chetham Society li, Lanc. Wills ii, 195). This branch of the Gerards appears in the parish registers (L.P.R.S. ii) as residing at Denham Hall between 1592 and 1657, and it was probably here that the venerable martyr, Edmund Arrowsmith alias Rigby and Bradshaw, chiefly resided during some years of his missionary career. He had been christened Bryan, but used his confirmation name of Edmund, which was that of his uncle, a distinguished professor at Douay College, where the future martyr was ordained in 1612, and came to the mission in his native county in the following year. He was the son of Robert Arrowsmith, of Haydock, and his wife Margery, daughter of Nicholas Gerard, younger brother of Sir Thomas Gerard, of Bryn, Knt. About 1622 he was apprehended and brought before Dr. Bridgeman, bishop of Chester, with whom he had a controversy before being committed to Lancaster Castle. Thence he was released about the time of the negotiations for a marriage between Prince Charles and a Spanish princess. Shortly afterwards he joined the Society of Jesus, as he had long desired, making his novitiate on the mission, but spending two or three months in Essex before his profession under the name of Rigby in 1624. From that date he continued to serve the mission at Brindle and neighbourhood till his apprehension before the summer of 1628. He was then arraigned at Lancaster, condemned to death for being a priest, and martyred August 28, 1628, aged 43 (True and Exact Relation; Knaresborough MS., Account of his Martyrdom, pp. 177 seq.; Challoner, Memoirs). The martyr's right hand was secured by the Gerards of Bryn, and to this day is held in great veneration. An illustration of it, with other relics of Fr. Arrowsmith, will be found in Dom Bede Camm's fascinating "Forgotten Shrines."

The Rev. Thomas Abbot who succeeded his uncle, Dr. Thomas Burgess, subsequently bishop of Clifton, to Monmouth in 1851, communicated to the present writer certain conceived family traditions respecting the mission at Brindle which are quite irreconcilable with documentary evidence. For instance, the parish registers of Burnley, Walton, and Brindle show that the family of Burgess was not settled in those places at the time related. The origin of the family will be found C.R.S. xiii, 14. These stories eventually found a misplacement in Fr. Camm's otherwise charming work.

St. Helen's Well.

Whilst showing that Denham Hall, a large stone edifice with gables, originally erected by Sir Henry Slater, and later the property of the Earl of Burlington, and used as a farm-house, was not the manor-house of Brindle as it had been termed, Kuerden states: "Over against Swansey House, a little towards the hill, standeth an ancient fabric, once the manor-house of Brindle, where hath been a chappel belonging to the same, and a little above it a spring of very clear water, rushing straight upward into the midst of a fayr fountain, walled square about in stone and flagged in the bottom, very transparent to be seen, and a strong stream issuing out of the same. This fountain is called St. Ellen's Well, to which place the vulgar neighbouring people of the Red Letter [catholics] do much resort with pretended devotion on each year, upon St. Ellin's day [Aug. 18]." Mr. Henry Taylor, in his "Ancient Crosses and Holy Wells of Lancashire," in 1906, gives some diagrams of the well, along with an interesting account, in which he says: "I could not find the chapel, but some of the stones in a dilapidated house close by may have formed a portion of such an edifice." This was the residence of the Gerards, and so continued till the early part of the 18th century. According to the Brindle parish registers, William Gerard, of the Well, married Elizabeth Cowpe, of Cuerden, Sept. 14, 1619; Oliver Gerard, of the Well, was buried April 17, 1664, James Gerard, of St. Ellen's Well, May 15, 1675, and Alice Gerard, of the Well, Feb. 8, 1679, the wills of the two last being proved at Chester in the respective years. Another Alice Gerard, widow, was buried June 1, 1688, as well as another James, of the Well, May 11, 1696, and the latter's son and successor was living at St. Helen's Well, and registered his name at the Preston Guild of 1702. Elizabeth Gerard, of the Well, was buried March 27, 1713. There was a chapel in the house, and if the priest did not generally reside at St. Helen's Well, it was at one time the principal place where Mass was said in the district.

Brindle Mission, S.J.

The name of Fr. Arrowsmith's successor has not been ascertained, but Fr. John Penketh alias Birkett, S.J., was here in 1669, as appears by the Visitation Presentments at Chester Diocesan Registry. This holy confessor of the Faith was the thirteenth child of Richard Penketh, of Penketh Hall, co. Lancaster, and of Bridge Trafford, co. Chester, gent. He was born in 1630, and was ordained priest at the English College at Rome, Dec. 17, 1656, but entered the Society in 1663, and came to the mission in his native county in 1666. He is said to have accepted a nominal chaplaincy from Mr. Scarisbrick, at Scarisbrick Hall, under the stipulation that he might be allowed to do missionary work at Brindle and perhaps Bedford. At one of these places he was arrested in Jan. 1678-9, during the Oates Plot ferment, but being very seriously ill at the time, was not committed to Lancaster Castle till the following month (C.R.S. iv, 433). There he was arraigned and condemned to death, but reprieved in 1679. He was retained in prison, however, till his release upon the accession of James II in 1685.

In the notice of "Fr. John Birkett, confessor in Lancaster Castle," C.R.S. iv, 431-440, an effort was made to unravel the mystery caused by two priests using the name of Birkett, of whom one died a prisoner in Lancaster Castle and was buried at the parish church as "Mr. Birkett, a prisoner," Dec. 25, 1680. In "Memoirs of Missionary Priests" (vol. ii, 446), edited anonymously by Bishop Richard Challoner from the Rev. John Knaresborough's MS., but subsequently attributed to the Bishop as his own work, it is stated that the name of the confessor was Richard Berket, a secular priest, "but of what college I have not found," who was tried at Lancaster at the same time with Fr. John Penketh, S.J., and another secular priest of Douay College called Richard Fletcher alias Barton. The Assize Rolls in the P.R.O. have recently been searched,* and the Pleas of the Crown at Lancaster Castle, on Saturday, 23 Aug., 31 Chas. II, 1679 (No. 55), before Sir William Dolben, Knt., justice, and Sir Thomas Raymond, Knt., and others, reveal that John Penketh was a priest and had been in the parish of Leigh, and that the jurors found him guilty, that he with others was committed, and that John Penketh and Richard Barton, of Melling, also a priest, were condemned to death, but that afterwards for certain causes then specially moving, the justices respited execution against Penketh and Barton, and they were remitted to the King's gaol at Lancaster Castle. These two were the only priests tried on this occasion, and the name Birket does not appear. Richard Fletcher alias Barton, of the ancient family of Fletcher of Denton's Green in Windle, came from Douay and eventually became chaplain to Robert Molyneux, Esq., of The Wood in Melling, where he was arrested, and to which after his release he returned and remained till his death in 1700 when he was buried in the ancient catholic burial-ground at Harkirk (Gibson, Crosby Records, pp. 81, 85). This disposes of Knaresborough's statement that three priests were tried and condemned, and also shows that Richard Barton must not be confused with "Mr. Birkett" who died a prisoner in 1680, but it leaves the identity of the last a mystery.

After his release in 1685 Fr. John Penketh returned to live with Richard Shuttleworth, Esq., at Bedford Leigh (C.R.S. iv, 437), and died there Aug. 1, 1701, aged 71. By a proposed will he had left a substantial sum as well as a freehold house and grounds in Brindle for the foundation of a mission on a firmer basis, to be served by the Jesuits in Brindle, Walton-le-dale, Hoghton Lordship, and Samlesbury, "in circuit round abouts." The house in which he lived, on which he had a lease for the life of Henry Gerard, of Bamfurlong Hall, Esq., descended from Henry Gerard, of Brindle, was bequeathed for the same purpose, and both this and the other house and grounds were held in trust by James Gerard, of Wheelton, who died in 1678, and subsequently by his widow Bridget and others. His executor was Fr. Henry Scarisbrick alias Neville, S.J., of Scarisbrick Hall. After Fr. Birkett's release the funds as in his draft will were used by Fr. Thomas Eccleston alias Holland, S.J., to build a house and chapel during the lull of persecution ensuing upon the accession of James II to the throne. Fr. Eccleston was the son of Thomas Eccleston, of Eccleston Hall, Esq., by Jane, daughter of Sir Cuthbert Clifton, of Westby Hall. He came to Lancashire in 1677, and one Bennet, presumably the trustee under Fr. Birkett's settlement, who was seized in fee of a chapel called Brindle chapel and two messuages and 20 acres of land in Brindle, did enfeof Fr. Holland "in trust and to the intent that Mass and prayers according to the usage of the Church of Rome should be said daily in the said chappel" (Forfeited Estates Papers, P.R.O., 107 S). According to other information given to the Commissioners in 1718, this chapel was built towards the end of the reign of James II in 1688. Fr. Eccleston alias Holland remained in charge till his death, Nov. 25, 1698, aged 55.

Fr. John Richardson, S.J., succeeded and had his chapel confiscated after the rising of 1715, but removed to some other house in the neighbourhood, and continued to serve the mission till his death, Sept. 27, 1728, aged 66. The confiscated property in 1734 was converted into the Brindle Workhouse. After Fr. Richardson's death the mission was removed in 1729 to Wheelton, where a chapel was opened in the garret of the house of Matthew Talbot, at Slate Delph, convicted of recusancy Apr. 30, 1717, and Fr. George Palmer, S.J., from Eccleston Hall, took charge. He was still there in 1741, but shortly afterwards removed to Chorley, and was succeeded by Fr. Cornelius Morphy, S.J., and so the mission continued at Slate Delph till its removal to South Hill, Chorley, in 1790. Its subsequent history to the present time will be found under the notice of Fr. John Birkett, C.R.S. iv, 431-440.

The old bell at Brindle Chapel, after remaining buried for many years, was dug up and sold to Eccleston Chapel, and the proceeds handed over for the benefit of the house and chapel at Slate Delph. The old altar-rails were also removed to the same chapel.

Brindle Benedictine Mission.

Meanwhile, the widow, Alice Gerard, of St. Helen's Well, died and was buried at Brindle, Feb. 8, 1679. Previous to her death, probably about 1677, she gave the site and built upon it a new chapel and house in Gregson Lane, known as Newhouse. Among the Forfeited Estates Papers in the P.R.O. are several depositions (M 10) made before the Commissioners in reference to this chapel. "George Hilton, of Brindle, co. Lancaster, sworn this 18 July, 1718, saith he hath known Newhouse ever since it was built by Alice Gerard, viz. about forty years ago: that one Green lived there about ten years & died about thirteen years ago, & this deponent did frequently hear the said Green say Mass there, after whose death Mr. Hutchinson, a Roman priest, succeeded him, & used to officiate there untill he died, which is about a year since, when Hudlestone succeeded him, & now usually resides there: that there are about 12 acres of ground belonging to the said house." And "William Hilton, of the same, sworn, saith he hath known Newhouse about forty years: that the said Green lived there about ten years, & used to officiate there as a Romish priest untill he died & was succeeded by Mr. Hutchinson, a Priest, who used in like manner to officiate there untill he died, & then Mr. Hudleston, a priest, succeeded him, & doth now or of late in like manner officiate there." Then "William Turnor, of the same, sworn, saith he hath known Newhouse about twenty years, & that said Green then lived there (but refusing to go on was sent to Lancaster goal)." Yet the words in brackets being subsequently erased he goes on—"and officiated as a Romish priest, & after him came Hutchinson, & officiated in like manner, & after him came Hudlestone, or one that went by that name, & officiated in like manner." Another witness—"Thomas Oram, of the same, sworn, saith he hath known Newhouse about twelve years, & that then said Green lived there, & after his death Hutchinson lived there, & after his death Mr. Hudleston came there, but did never see either of them officiate as priests." P 134 is "An account of Estates granted to superstitious uses in & about Preston, co. Lancaster," reported by the vicar of that town, Samuel Peploe, subsequently rewarded for his anti-papist activity at this period by a bishopric, number 11 of which reads—"Newhouse & grounds belonging to it in Brindle is mostly let in parcels. One Hutchinson, a Popish priest, has lived on it some time, who succeeded Mr. Green, a priest, who died there. Mr. Hutchinson will be proved to be a priest by Mr. Hitchmough." The last was the infamous pervert priest and informer, Richard Hitchmough. In MS. S 95 is—"John Thornton of Croston's Information as to Popish Priests," and under Brindle appears—"Hutchinson, a priest resident in Brindle, or was so not so long since." John Thornton, of Croston, gent., and Edward Woodcock, of Euxton, gent., were high constables for Leyland Hundred, and on Oct. 13, 1716, in L 2 had reported under Brindle "Mr. Hutchinson, a reputed Pop. Priest."

The record of the priests in charge of the mission, so far as ascertained, is as follows:—

Dom Francis Leander Green, O.S.B., a native of Monmouthshire, was professed at Lamspring Apr. 11, 1660, was sent to the mission in the North Province, and was stationed about 1695 at Brindle, where he is stated to have died Nov. 8, but according to the registers was buried at the parish church of Brindle Oct. 31, 1704 (L.P.R.S. ii, 171).

Dom Joseph Wilfrid Hutchinson, O.S.B., born in Northumberland, was professed at Lamspring Nov. 7, 1679, came to the mission in the North Province in 1697, succeeded Fr. Green in 1704, and died at Brindle Aug. 24, 1717. In this year the protestant rector of Brindle estimated the catholics in his parish at 170 (Lanc. Cath., p. 8). Of course at this period the catholic mission included several other parishes. He was succeeded by—

Dom William Denis Huddleston, O.S.B., second son of Henry Hudleston, of Sawston Hall, co. Cambridge, a lieut.-colonel in the service of Charles I, and his wife Mary, daughter of William Havers, of Thelton Hall, co. Norfolk, Esq. (Burke, Commoners, ii, 585). He was professed April 24, 1701, at the English Abbey of SS. Adrian and Denis at Lambspring (Weldon, Chron. Notes), and, according to his own statement in his 'Renunciation' printed at the end of his sermon in 1729, became "Master and Director of Studies, Secretary of the English Benedictine Order, Deputy of the General, and Deputy of the Lord Abbot of Lambspring to the General Chapter. Twice appointed representative to the Court of Rome, Deputy sent to the Pope's Nuncio in Flanders by the Provincial and Province of Canterbury, and lately Confessor-elect of Sion House." He came to Brindle in 1717, and remained in charge of Newhouse mission till 1721, after which he is lost to sight until he apostatized and publicly read his 'Renunciation' of the Catholic Religion, which was published under the title of "A Recantation Sermon, Preached before the Right Reverend Father in God, Samuel [Peploe, the former vicar of Preston], Lord Bishop of Chester, at the Collegiate Church in Manchester, Sept. 21, anno dom. 1729. By William Huddleston, lately a Benedictin Missionary, &c., of the Church of Rome. Published at the Desire of His Lordship." London, printed for J. Hodges in Manchester, 1729, 8vo, pp. 36. He was then made rector of Navenden, in Kent.

Dom William Placid Naylor, O.S.B., took charge of the mission in 1721 or 1722. He was a son of Thomas Naylor, at that time a farmer in Scarisbrick, and later under the Gerards in Ashton. He was professed at St. Laurence's at Dieulward in 1711, came to the mission in the North Province, and was appointed to Brindle as stated. Bishop Williams made his Visitation in this district in Oct., 1728, and confirmed 402 persons from Lower Hall in Samlesbury, Brindle, and Little Mosna in Walton-le-dale, Fr. Collingridge, O.S.B., Dom Nailer, O.S.B., and Dom Champney, O.S.B., being the respective priests (Merry England, No. 56, p. 483). About this time, in 1726, he had been enabled with the aid of various benefactions to acquire Stanfield House and the grounds in which it stood. It was purchased for him by James Woodcock and others, and was held by them in trust until it was formally transferred to him in 1731. This property, with five acres of land, he made over to the mission in 1735, and on it he erected a new chapel, near the site of the old one. Other episcopal visitations in the district were made during his term in 1749, 1755, 1760, and 1766 (Abram, Hist. of Blackburn, 353 seq.). He held many offices in the Benedictine Congregation—Definitor of the Province in 1733, Definitor of the Regimen, 1737, Provincial of York, 1741–66; filled the dignities of Prior of Norwich, 1741, Durham, 1745, and Canterbury, 1769, and became President-General, 1766, till his death at Dieulward Nov. 8, 1772, at an advanced age. He remained nominally in charge of Brindle till July 16, 1769, two years before that date having been succeeded by—

Dom Joseph Laurence Hadley, O.S.B., son of John Hadley and his wife, Mary Clements, of London, where he was born in 1739. He was professed at St. Gregory's, Douay, Mar. 25, 1757, and sent to the mission in the North Province to Biddleston, the seat of the Selbys, in 1764, whence he was transferred to Brindle in 1767, in which year his congregation in the protestant Bishop of Chester's return is put down at 364 (Lanc. Cath., 8). In 1774 Bishop William Walton made his Visitation of the district, and confirmed 216 of the Brindle and Slate Delph congregations; and on Sept. 30, 1784, Bishop Matthew Gibson confirmed 168 of Fr. Hadley's congregation, which was estimated at 591 communicants. The Rev. John Chadwick, vicar-general in Lancashire for the bishop, had informed his lordship in a letter dated Weld Bank, Feb. 3, 1783, that Mr. Hadley's congregation at Brindle numbered 600 communicants (Ushaw Collections, MSS., ii, 491). Early in 1786 Mr. Hadley commenced to build adjoining the park of Brindle Lodge, the seat of the Heatleys, a new chapel and house in Gregson Lane, dedicated to St. Joseph, which was opened in that year. He had likewise established a Sunday school (Records of the Catholic Brethren, or First Catholic Charitable Society, Preston). The building is of stone, devoid of architectural elaboration, but good and substantial. Over the door, approached by two steps, is a tablet inscribed with the date of the erection of the chapel. Mr. Hadley continued to serve Brindle till 1802, when he retired in ill-health to Nethererton, co. Lancaster; thence in 1803 he went to Sarnesfield, co. Hereford, the seat of the Monington family, and finally to Liverpool, where he died May 30, 1805, aged 65.

In 1792 Dom John Placid Bennet, a native of Lancashire, assisted Mr. Hadley for a short time before going to Hindley in that year. Another assistant during his failing health was Dom Henry Lawson, a native of York, in 1763, and third son of John Lawson, Esq., and his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Selby, of Biddleston Hall, co. Northumberland, Esq. He came from Bath in 1800, and remained here till 1802, when he went to Morpeth. Upon Mr. Hadley's final retirement in 1802, his appointed successor was—

Dom James Alexius Pope, O.S.B., born in Lancashire in 1755, was professed at Dieulward in 1776, sent to the North Province to Beaufront, co. Northumberland, the seat of the Erringtons, 1788-93, transferred to Hesleyside, in the same county, the seat of the Charltons, 1793-7, so to St. Mary's, Liverpool, 1797-1802, Lawkland, co. York, 1802, and, finally, in the same year was given the charge of Brindle. In 1829 an assistant was assigned to him, who became his successor in 1830, when Mr. Pope withdrew to Southport, and there lived in retirement till his death Feb. 19, 1837, aged 81.

Dom Joseph Bede Smith, O.S.B., born June 9, 1801, was son of Robert Smith, of Drax Abbey, yeoman, and his wife Ann, daughter of John Howe, of Everingham, co. York, game-keeper. Two of his uncles, younger sons of William Smith, of Drax Abbey Farm, and his wife Dorothy, daughter of Thomas Owst, of Halsham, and Dorothy his wife, became Dominicans at Bornhem, the second son, Fr. John Bernard Smith, O.P., dying at Bornhem College Mar. 16, 1804, aged 55, and the other and the fifth son, being Fr. Joseph Smith, O.P., dying at Stourton Lodge, co. York, the seat of Lord Stourton, Dec. 21, 1804 (Gillow, Miscellaneous Yorkshire Catholic Pedigrees, MS., xvii, 97 seq.). Joseph Smith was educated at St. Lawrence's College, Ampleforth, where he was professed, under the name of Bede, Dec. 23, 1819, and was ordained priest July 11, 1825. His first mission was at St. Mary's, Liverpool, from 1827 to 1829, whence he came to Brindle as assistant to Mr. Pope, and from 1830 till his death Fr. Bede retained charge of the mission, dying here Jan. 29, 1874, aged 72.

Mr. Anthony Hewitson, in "Our Country Churches and Chapels," 1872, p. 155, described him as "one of the most genial, as he has been one of the most industrious priests." Short in stature, and rather inclined to be stout, he had "a sharp merry eye," was quick-witted, beamed with good humour, and believed in "old friends, old times, old manners, old books, and old wine," and the present writer may add from his own knowledge was fond of spending a musical evening at a friend's house.

In 1831 Mr. Joseph Knight, of Chelsea (Gillow, Biog. Dict. iv, 74), erected the schools, about two hundred yards from the chapel, commemorative of his being a native of Brindle. In 1832 Capt. William Heatley, of Brindle Lodge, generously paid for the enlargement of the chapel, and a "Lady Chapel" was formed on the left-hand side of the sanctuary. A further enlargement took place in 1843, which provided a total accommodation for about 800 persons (Biog. Dict. iii, 252-6; Kelly, Cath. Missions, 100).

After the death of Squire Heatley in 1840, Mr. Thomas Eastwood, the husband of his niece Catherine, to whom he had bequeathed Brindle Lodge, was most dissatisfied with the terms of the old squire's will, and at once instituted proceedings of various kinds. The bulk of the estate, both real and personal, had been left to the old squire's spiritual adviser, the Rev. Thomas Sherburne vere Irving, of the Willows, Kirkham, whose compromise in 1841 was followed by further litigation and much controversy, in which Bishop Brown, Francis Middleton, Esq., of the Stockeld Hall family, the Rev. Francis Trappes, who acted as the latter's theologian, 194 members of the Brindle congregation, and many others took part. Amongst numerous publications was a broad sheet containing a poetical effusion entitled "The Brindle Lament." In June, 1844, a petition was presented to the House of Commons signed by a number of Mr. Eastwood's adherents in the Brindle congregation, praying the House to afford that protection formerly given to patrons of catholic chapels, and that the same should be vested in laymen, and not the Pope's vicar. Mr. Eastwood's next move was to defy Fr. Bede Smith by refusing to pay pew-rent, Mr. Heatley having occupied a tribune in the chapel to which Mr. Eastwood laid claim, and six members of the congregation were committed to the Preston House of Correction on refusing to pay the penalties of conviction for assault, at the Chorley Petty Sessions, Mar. 24, 1846, during a disturbance made by Mr. Eastwood. An action against the magistrates for false imprisonment was commenced in the following August, but withdrawn on some technical grounds. After this Mr. Eastwood became a protestant, and turned the domestic oratory at Brindle Lodge into a bathroom and lavatory, and removed from college his two sons who were studying for the priesthood. It was not long before he quarrelled with the Anglican rector of Brindle, but was buried as a protestant in Walton churchyard (Haydock Papers MSS.; Biog. Dict. Engl. Caths. iii, 254-5). In July, 1867, the effects at Brindle Lodge, including the Heatley library, were put up to auction by his widow, and the estate privately sold to Mr. Whitehead, since which time its catholic associations have ceased.

Shortly before 1857, Fr. Bede established the existing mission at Walton-le-Dale. From 1844-8 he had an assistant, Dom Richard Clement Croft, O.S.B. (Birt, Obit Book, 158), but otherwise Fr. Bede continued to serve Brindle alone until his death. He was succeeded by—

Dom John Ildephonus Brown, O.S.B., ordained at Ampleforth in 1862, prior of Downside, 1868 to 1870, came to Brindle in 1874 to 1883, when he returned to Ampleforth Abbey, and, finally, was transferred to Parbold, Lancashire, where he died Feb. 10, 1917. Meanwhile, the mission was supplied by Dom Joseph Murphy, O.S.B., 1883, till the appointment of—

Dom Michael Wilfrid Brown, O.S.B. (elder brother of Dom John Ildephonus Brown), born at Wigan July 6, 1832, educated at Ampleforth and ordained priest Oct. 3, 1858; prefect of studies, 1858-66; sub-prior, 1866-74; sent on the mission to St. Anne's, Liverpool, 1874; St. Peter's, Liverpool, 1874-7; Easingwold, 1877-9; Birtley, 1879-80; St. Anne's, Liverpool, again, 1880-4; and came to Brindle in 1884 till death here May 2, 1905, aged 72. In 1896 he enlarged the Lady Chapel and erected a new altar. He was succeeded by—

Dom Basil Feeny, O.S.B., 1906 to date, assisted by Dom Joseph Cuthbert Almond, O.S.B., from 1914 to date. The latter is the author of the interesting article in "The Ampleforth Journal" for Jan., 1915, entitled "Religious Parsimony at Brindle." J.G.

* Samlesbury, a township-chapelry in Blackburn parish.

† This name is found in various forms—Paldwin, Paulden, Palding, Pauden, Paudin, Poadeing, and Polding. Administration to the will of Wm. Paudlin, of Brindle, was granted in 1708, and the name appears in the Brindle registers somewhat earlier, but may be traced to Upper Darwen, parish of Blackburn, where Henry Palding, yeo., died in 1751. He had a son William, born in 1699, and another son John in 1703. Archbishop John Bede Polding, O.S.B., who died in 1877, was of this family, which in the middle of last century acquired extensive estates within the radius of the old Brindle mission. They owned a cotton mill in Livesey, and were also corn merchants in Blackburn.

‡ William Heatley, subsequently O.S.B., was the second son of Hugh Heatley, of Samlesbury, yeoman, a Catholic non-juror in 1717, who registered leasehold estates in Samlesbury inherited from his father and grandfather, James and Hugh Heatley, yeomen. His grandmother, Alice Heatley, then a widow, was a recusant convict in 1717, as well as his uncle, Peter Heatley, of Whittle-le-Woods, yeoman, whose son, Fr. James Heatley, S.J., born Apr. 2, 1715, died chaplain to the Tempests at Broughton Hall, co. York, May 11, 1782, aged 67. Through the instrumentality of Dom Wm. Placid Naylor, O.S.B., William Heatley was sent to Lambspring, where he was professed under the name of Maurus in 1740, and ordained in 1746. He was at St. Gregory's, Douai, in 1750, and came to the mission in the South Province and was placed at Cheame, Surrey. In 1757 he became Definitor of the Province, remaining at Cheame till he was elected Abbot of Lambspring in 1762, which office he retained till his death there, Aug. 15, 1802, aged 79. His nephew, Dom Hugh Jerome Heatley, O.S.B., eldest son of James Heatley, of Samlesbury, was born in 1757 at Preston, where his father was engaged in business, was professed at Lambspring in 1777, and was sent to Bath in 1787, where he died April 28, 1792, aged 35. Another relative, Dom John Lewis Heatley, O.S.B., born at Samlesbury in 1752, died at Lambspring May 9, 1805.

* This Alexander died in infancy, and Alexander Catterall, of Samlesbury, weaver, and his wife Jane, had another son called Alexander, born 22nd and christened 23 May, 1727, at Walton-le-Dale parish church. They had other children baptized there between 1716 and 1720 (Walton Reg., L.P.R.S. vol. xxxvii). Abbot Snow (Necrology, p. 125) mistook the entry of 1724 to refer to the Benedictine. Dom Alexander Benedict Catterall was professed at Paris May 23, 1743, and upon coming to the mission served Brandsby Hall, co. York, the seat of Francis Cholmeley, Esq., 1761-4, Whitehaven, Cumberland, 1764-74, Capheaton, Northumberland, the seat of Sir Edward Swinburne, 5th Bart., 1774-83, and then became confessor to the nuns at Paris till his death July 31, 1791, aged 64. His uncle, Dom Edward Bernard Catterall, O.S.B., son of Edward Catterall, was born at Samlesbury July 25, 1706 (L.P.R.S. xi, 90), professed in 1725 at Dieulward, of which he was prior 1733-53, and died at Woolton Sept. 9, 1781, aged 75.

1789. The Gregsons of Balderston derived from the family of Normanton of Normanton, co. York, which returned a pedigree of twenty generations at the Visitation of 1563 (Harl. Soc. xvi, 147). Gregory Normanton married a Lancashire lady, as did his son who for brevity was called Grygson, and from that period the family adopted that name and settled at Balderston, where they held an estate and intermarried with the Ashtons, Hoghtons, Faringtons, Southworths, and other leading families. They gradually became reduced, and latterly held a small estate at Balderston called Green House, which passed with an heiress to the Gradwells, and through them in like manner to Richard Carr, Esq., of Preston, and is now occupied and held by his grandchildren.

* Ollerton.

† May be Whittle, Wheelton, or, most likely, Whithnel.

‡ William Worthington was son of Matthew Worthington, of Higher Shutting fields in Walton, a Catholic non-juror in 1717, who then called himself

* She was a daughter of John Gerard, of Brindle, and died Nov. 13, 1737. Her brothers Robert and John Gerard, of Thorpe Green, Brindle, died respectively in Nov., 1777, and June 17, 1775, the latter aged 77, and her sister Elizabeth Gerard died May 5, 1794, aged 88. John Wilcock succeeded to the Gerards' house at Thorpe Green, and became land-surveyor and estate agent to the Duke of Devonshire's local property, as likewise to the Hoghtons, Townley-Parkers, etc. He married a daughter of Mr. Hubbersty, of Denham, and sister to Bishop William Turner's grandmother, and had a son William Wilcock, a woollen-draper in Preston, who married Mary daughter of Edward Brown, of Preston, yeoman, whose son Edward Wilcock, born Jan. 10, 1810, became a solicitor in Preston, who wrote and published some poems. James Wilcock's brother, Dom Peter Wilcock, O.S.E., was professed at Diulward in 1737, and after being confessor at Syon House, Lisbon, from 1742 to 1768, died at Diulward May 11, 1776. By a second marriage James Wilcock had a numerous family inclusive of Fr. Charles Peter Wilcock, O.S.F., who died at The Hill, Goosnargh, Apr. 8, 1802, and George Wilcock, who settled at Bolton and by his wife Anne Taylor was father of the Rev. Peter Wilcock, who died Aug. 15, 1857, aged 79.

† The Girlingtons of Withnell and Ollerton were descended from a younger brother of Nicholas Girlington, of Thurland Castle, in the parish of Tunstall, co. Lancaster, Esq., whose son Major-General Sir John Girlington defended the castle during the Civil Wars, and was slain at Melton Mowbray, co. Leicester, in 1645. The Withnell branch were the heirs male, but Thurland Castle passed through the marriage of Magdalen, daughter and heiress of John Girlington,

* He, or William Worswick, under May 31, 1739, may be identical with Dom Dunstan Worswick, O.S.B., a native of Brindle, professed at Dieulward 1758 and ordained priest in 1768, who was sent to Lambspring, and died at Hildesheim Mar. 18, 1770.

† Two of this family were Benedictines, Dom Peter Dunstan Holderness, professed at Dieulward in 1741, who eventually died there June 25, 1782, and Bro. Francis Holderness, a native of Preston, professed at Douai in 1777, and died at Downside Jan. 21, 1820. Peter was probably a son of Thos. Holderness, of Ribbleton, webster, a recusant convict at Preston Sessions Jan. 23, 1714.

* His parents were married at Brindle Aug. 10, 1736. He was professed O.S.B. in 1765 at Dieulward under the religious name of Basil, and became sub-prior. From 1779-82 he was confessor to the nuns at Paris, and went to Mr. Wright at Kelvedon Hall, co. Essex, but in April, 1783, he became chaplain to Richard Lacon, Esq., at Linley Hall, co. Salop, till the following Nov., when he was appointed confessor to the Teresian convent at Lanherne in Cornwall, 1783-90, and then went to Bonham in Wilts., from which he finally retired on Sept. 7, 1801, to the house of his brother at Clayton Brook, where he died Dec. 12, 1802, aged almost 56, and was buried at Walton-le-Dale three days later. Many other members of the family became priests and religious.

* Cecily Gregson subsequently married Thomas Burgess, joiner, of Clayton-le-Woods, and was mother of the Rt. Rev. Thomas Burgess, Bishop of Clifton (C.R.S. xiii, 14).

† Thomas Kitchen, of Ribbleton, gent., was one of the executors to the will of Evan Gerard, of Haighton, gent., Oct. 7, 1747, whose wife Anne was possibly a Kitchen. The Kitchens of Barton and Ribbleton were recusants. Thomas Kitchen's mother Anne, residing a widow at Barton, was a Catholic non-juror in 1717 and returned estate in Ribbleton and Fulwood, her will being proved in 1732.

‡ John Gerard, of Gerard's Hall in Haighton, Esq., was the eldest son of Evan Gerard, of the same, and his wife Anne, whose marriage covenant was dated Feb. 8, 1696. He died unmarried, and the estate passed to his nephew Evan John Gerard (vide under marriages Nov. 4, 1732).

* The Osbaldestons of Sunderland Hall, in Balderston, descended from a younger son of Sir Alexander Osbaldeston, of Osbalderston, always retained the Faith and intermarried with the best Catholic families in the county. Alexander Osbaldeston, of Sunderland, married one of the four daughters and heiresses of John Westby, of Mowbreck Hall, Esq., and was the father of the Alexander of the text, who was the last of his family to reside at Sunderland Hall, and withdrew to Preston, administration to his estate being granted in 1752. The sponsors to his child were his brother and sister.

* He married at Walton parish church, Aug. 31, 1782 (L.P.R.S. vol. xxxvii, p. 450), Cecily, daughter of John Gregson, of Brindle, and their son Thomas Burgess, born Oct. 1, 1791, was professed O.S.B. at Ampleforth under the name of Lawrence, Oct. 13, 1807, and was elected prior in July, 1818, but resigned his office and became secularized in 1830, withdrew to the college at Prior Park, Bath, and subsequently served Cannington, Portland chapel, Bath, and finally Monmouth till his consecration as the first bishop of Clifton, July 27, 1851. He died at Westbury-on-Trym Nov. 27, 1854, aged 63. His sister Ann was mother of the Rev. Thomas Abbot, who went to Ampleforth to become a Benedictine, but left at the time of the exodus from Ampleforth in 1830, followed Prior Burgess to Prior Park, and in 1846, after ordination, was given charge of the mission at Coedranged, co. Monmouth, which his uncle, the Rev. Thomas Burgess, had commenced in 1845. Mr. Abbot erected a chapel in 1847, but succeeded his uncle to Monmouth after his elevation to the see of Clifton, and remained there till his retirement to Lancaster in 1894, where he died Feb. 18, 1904.

* Edward Osbaldeston, of Cuerdale, miller, was a Catholic non-juror in 1717, and besides other leasehold estate in Balderston registered one in Cuerdale, apparently in his own occupation, which had been leased, Nov. 20, 1676, to his wife Elizabeth's father, Richard Kellet, of Cuerdale (buried at Walton Jan. 25, 1704-5). Three of his sons and four daughters were baptized at Walton between 1706 and 1720, and his wife Elizabeth was buried there April 26, 1729. He then married his second wife Anne as indicated above, Oct. 7, 1730, but no issue is recorded. Eventually he seems to have removed to Blackburn, and died there in 1749.

- Feb. 2. Richardus et Alicia Valentine, † testes Hugo Charnley & Anna
Leigh. Preston

* Richard Gerard, born May 19, 1701, was a younger son of Evan Gerard, of Alston and Houghton, gent. (son of John Gerard, of Brindle, gent.), whose marriage covenant with his wife Ann was dated Feb. 8, 1696. He went to London and entered business as a draper, his residence being in the parish of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields. Unfortunately the printed marriage registers at Brindle parish church (L.P.R.S. vol. xi) are not brought down to this date, and hence the surname of Richard's wife Helen has not been ascertained. She may have been a Heatley, daughter or niece of Peter Heatley, one of the witnesses to the marriage, of Whittle-in-the-Woods, a Catholic non-juror in 1717, and a younger brother of Hugh Heatley, grandfather of William Heatley, Esq., of Brindle Lodge. "Dominus Joannes Gerard de Houghton" was Richard Gerard's eldest brother, who died unmarried and was buried at Broughton June 20, 1744. Richard was buried at Broughton June 3, 1747, and Gerard's Hall, subsequently known as Houghton House estate, eventually passed to Richard's eldest son Evan John Gerard, Esq., captain in the Royal Lancashire Volunteers, whose portrait in oil is still at Houghton, and whose grandson and namesake was the last male heir of the family and died intestate at Houghton Nov. 7, 1832, his sister being a Franciscan nun at Taunton Lodge Convent. The senior Evan John's second wife, Elizabeth, widow of Thomas Davis, Esq., had been previously married to Henry Roper, 10th Baron Teynham, who died in 1781. At one time the Gerards had the residence called Green Bank, subsequently occupied by Mr. M. A. Motler as a school for Catholic boys, then in the suburbs but now part of Preston.

* One of this family settled in Friargate, Preston, and was the father of four Benedictines, where the eldest, Dom William Gregory Sharrock, subsequently bishop and V.A.-W.D., was born in 1742. The father then removed to Walton-le-Dale, and apparently commenced the printing business carried on by his son, J. Sharrock, who published at Walton, amongst other religious works, "The Paradise of the Soul" in 1771, and whose widow continued as a Catholic bookseller in Preston for many years, and died at Ribchester Mar. 13, 1827, aged 79. At Walton were born the three other sons, Dom James Jerome in 1750, Dom John Dunston in 1754, and Bro. Walter William in 1756, all having followed their uncle, Bro. William Joseph Sharrock, to St. Gregory's at Douai (Kirk, Biog. Collns. MSS.; Snow, Necrology; Maziere Brady, Episc. Succ.). Several Sharrocks of Ribbleton, Brindle, and Clayton were convicted of recusancy at the Preston sessions in Jan. 1714 and April 1717.

* The name, Hugh especially, was very common about this locality, Euxton and Chorley, and though no relationship with Hugh Tootell, the eminent church historian, has hitherto been traced, these Tootells were no doubt remotely descended from the ancient Catholic lords of Healey so long seated at Lower Healey Hall.

* The Walmsleys of Preston and Durton in Broughton were related through the Charnleys of Durton to the Heskeths of Whitehill, the Tootells, Edmundsons of Durton, and other old Catholic families, and the heiress of one of them, Dorothy Walmsley, became the wife of Hugh Howarth, of Preston, and died July 3, 1766, aged 44, her husband outliving her till Mar. 26, 1794, aged 66, both being buried at Walton. Their daughter and heiress Elizabeth married Roger Anderton, of Lovely Hall in Salesbury, son of James, of the same, and his wife a Tootell, and his son James Francis Anderton, Esq., acquired the old Gerard estate in Haighton, and died in 1853.

† Henry Gradell (or Gradwell), of Clifton-cum-Salwick in the Fylde, yeoman, was a younger brother of Robert Gradwell, who held a leasehold under the Cliftons of Lytham Hall of a farm in Clifton.

‡ Thomas Kitchen, of Rough Heys in Ribbleton, was the son of John Kitchen, of the same, whose brother Richard resided at Fulwood. His wife's father, Richard Bolton, of Ribbleton, yeoman, was a Catholic non-juror in 1717. In the previous year, 1716, Peploe, the Vicar of Preston, informed the Commissioners for Forfeited Estates (p. 134, P.R.O.), "Richard Bolton & John Banes, both of Preston, were left executors to one Mrs. Anne Brewer who left much money in trust as believed for Popish uses, for Bolton and Banes were strangers to her, & only named for conveying the effects to the Priests." The Brewers resided at Fishwick and Moor House in Newton-cum-Scales, as well as at Ribbleton Lodge in the adjoining township to Fish-wick. The sons of John Brewer, of Fishwick, gent., ended with FF. John and Thomas Brewer, S.J., born respectively in 1732 and 1743, and Henry Brewer, of Moor House, and their sister and heiress Isabel carried the latter entailed estate in marriage to Richard Gillow, of Great Singleton. Of the latter branch were Dom John Bede Brewer, O.S.B., D.D., born in 1742 at Ribbleton Lodge, his nephews Dom John Bede Polding, O.S.B., Archbishop of Sidney, and Dom Henry Anselm Brewer, O.S.B., son of Henry Brewer, Esq., of Ribbleton Lodge, born in 1792, who died in 1849.

* There were many Benedictines of this name, both monks and nuns, from this mission. Dom Richard Vincent Gregson, O.S.B., born in 1721, who died in 1800, was probably George's eldest son.

† Thomas Duckworth, Ducketh, or Duckett, was apparently brother to Bartholomew Duckett, of Alston and Claughton, and uncle to Dom George Edmund Duckett, O.S.B. (C.R.S. xx, 302-3).

‡ Roger Anderton, of Hoghton, had another son James, formerly of Hoghton, and subsequently of Lovely Hall in Salesbury, who married a daughter of Hugh Tootell and had three sons—Roger (vide under marriage of May 11, 1740), Richard, of Morton House, Aighton, and Hugh, of Chorley, the father of the Rev. John Anderton who died in 1857 (inadvertently said to be son of Roger (C.R.S. xv, 157), and one of the two sisters of the priest was married * Brook was a collier at Burgh, Duxbury, in the parish of Standish, under John Chadwick, formerly of Birkacre within Chorley, gent. Mr. Chadwick married Aug. 14, 1717, Ellen Wareing from this locality. His will dated April 6, 1751, was proved in 1755, and his widow Ellen was living at Croxteth in 1762 with her second son James, steward to Lord Molyneux at Croxteth, and also to the Welds at Stonyhurst who established the chapel at Weld Bank, Chorley, in 1774, to which the ancient mission at Burgh Hall was transferred by his youngest brother, the Rev. John Chadwick, V.G. in Lancashire for the Northern Vicariate, who remained there till his death Oct. 1, 1802, aged 74. The eldest son, Thomas Chadwick, of Birkacre, but afterwards of Burgh Hall, married in 1744 Ellenora Maria, daughter of Matthew Cragg, of Cammerton in Cumberland, gent. (by Margaret, daughter and heiress of Thomas Whalley, of Hesldin, co. Lancaster, yeoman), who made his will at Burgh Mar. 18, 1745. Thomas Chadwick joined Prince Charlie's army as a lieutenant, and was taken prisoner at Carlisle in 1746 (Ray's Rebellion, p. 223), but obtaining his release returned to Burgh Hall. That estate was eventually sold for £30,000 by the widow and executrix of Francis Chadwick, of Preston and Plungington House, and she died at The Hermitage, Alston, Mar. 31, 1857, aged 81, with her son John Frederick Chadwick, Esq., whose wife Alice was the daughter and coheirress of Robert Gillow, of Clifton Hill, Esq. The last Francis Chadwick to own Burgh Hall had a sister Helen married to John Stonor, younger son of Charles Stonor, of Stonor, co. Oxon, and uncle to Thomas Stonor who succeeded to the barony of Camoys.

of Sholley, which had already formed connections with Essex, to which county it removed about this period, abandoned Sholley Hall, and ultimately sold their estate about 1870, when the portion of the venerable mansion that had not been demolished a few years before was rebuilt by its purchaser. The house enclosed a court, and the present writer remembers the remains of the ancient domestic chapel. A long list of the chaplains could be given, one of them, the Rev. Charles Ingleby, having been buried at Ribchester only a few years before this date, on June 6, 1743. The last chaplain to reside in the hall, the Rev. William Fisher, removed the mission to Stydd Lodge, Ribchester, when the chapel was erected in 1789, and died there Nov. 1, 1813.

* The Heatleys, always staunch recusants, had resided at Samlesbury, Brindle, and the neighbourhood for many generations. James at one time resided in Preston, and gave his name to Heatley Street. His son, Captain William Heatley, of Brindle Lodge, who died July 21, 1840, aged 76, was the squire so identified with the chapel at Brindle. During his life he was a generous benefactor to chapels at Manchester, Preston and elsewhere, and bequeathed large sums to the Church.

* Robert Worden, linen weaver, and Ellen Talbot were married the next day at Walton parish church (L.P.R.S. xxxvii, 433). James Talbot resided at Walton at this period, having married Mary Parke, a Protestant, and one of their sons, Rev. Thomas Talbot, born 1736, was ordained priest at Rome in 1762 (Foley, Records S.J. vi, 494), was at Egton Bridge in 1773 whence he attended to Ugthorpe, subsequently was at Kilvington Hall, and West Witton or Leyburn, and died July 19, 1818, aged 82. Another son was Fr. John Talbot, S.J., born in 1737, who died at Rixton in 1801. And a third son, Rev. Richard Talbot, born in 1738, was ordained with his brother at Rome in 1762, and was at Croxdale Hall, the seat of the Salvins in Durham, till 1771, when he was transferred to Bishop Thornton, Yorks., till his death Aug. 1, 1823, aged 85. James Talbot had two brothers—Fr. John Talbot alias Mansell, S.J., born in 1708, who retired from the chaplaincy at Lytham Hall, the seat of the Cliftons (C.R.S. xvi, 424), and died at his sister's house at Walton in 1799, aged 91, and Fr. Thomas Talbot, S.J., born in 1717, who died in London in 1799, aged 82 (Foley, Records S.J. vii, 759). William Talbot, who removed from Wheelton to Preston, was another son or else a nephew of James Talbot. He accumulated very considerable wealth in business, and purchased the manor of Wheelton from the Sudells, who had bought it from the Hoghtons of Hoghton Tower. After the death of his first wife, he married secondly at Walton, June 6, 1761, Dorothy Duddell, of a local 1717 recusant family, and by her had a son William and several daughters, one of whom, Margaret, born June 18, 1766, died a nun at York Bar in 1810, and another was buried at Walton in 1771. William Talbot, sen., died Aug. 10, 1813, aged 79, and was interred at Fernyhalgh beside his wife Dorothy, who died Oct. 10, 1810, aged 74, where a tablet in the chapel commemorates them as well as a granddaughter who died Aug. 21, 1814, aged 9. The son, William Talbot, jun., of Preston, Esq., lord of the manor of Wheelton, married Catharine, daughter of Thomas Penswick of the Manor House, Ashton in Makerfield, steward to the Gerard's of Bryn, and sister to Bishop Thomas Penswick, V.A.—N.D., and had three daughters—Dorothy, the wife of James Sidgreaves, of Inglewhite Lodge, Goosnargh, who died in 1853; Catharine, wife of John O'Reilly, brother to the Rt. Rev. Bernard O'Reilly, third Bishop of Liverpool (whose mother Teresa was the daughter of John Blundell, of Preston, corn merchant), and who for a time after Mr. Talbot's death occupied the Talbot mansion at Wheelton, but had no issue; and Mary Anne, who died unmarried at Preston Mar. 14, 1840. Mr. Talbot died at Preston June 29, 1848, aged 78, and his granddaughter Catharine Sidgreaves, her only brother James Sidgreaves having died unmarried in 1853, ultimately became heiress to the Talbot and Sidgreaves estates, and married Sept. 13, 1859, Ænas Ronald Macdonell, Esq., of Morar, Inverness-shire, and died at Edinburgh Nov. 14, 1888. The Talbots were great benefactors to South Hill, Chorley, and to the Jesuits at Preston, where the schools attached to St. Walburge bear their name.

* Some account of this family appears in C.R.S. vi, 196-7. William Grimbaldeston was sent to Douay College as an ecclesiastical student in 1741, but left in 1743 having no vocation for the priesthood. He seems to have had family connections with this neighbourhood, and two of his sons became Benedictines, Dom William Clement, born at Alston in 1752, who died at Woolston in 1824, and Dom Joseph Paul, born at Alston in 1756, who died at Lamspring in 1807. The family appear as farmers in various parts of the Fylde for centuries.

Southworth* Samsbury

* Jane Gregson had been the last Southworth mistress of the venerable hall of Samsbury. As the daughter and heiress of Richard farington, of Farington Hall in Ribbleton, Esq., by Grace, daughter of Thomas Middleton, of Leighton Hall, Esq., and sister of Sir George Middleton, Bart., she was twelve years of age at the time of Dugdale's Visitation of Lancashire, Aug. 6, 1665, when her father returned his pedigree. The faringtons of Ribbleton, descending from the faringtons of Worden and Farington, had previously returned pedigrees in 1567 and 1613, and that of 1665 commences with Richard farington and his wife Ellen, daughter of Sir John Southworth, of Samsbury Hall. Jane farington, the heiress of the Ribbleton estate, which was much encumbered, became the wife of Edward Southworth, Esq., the last of his great Catholic family to reside at Samsbury Hall, which likewise was irretrievably encumbered, and sold by him on Mar. 16, 1678, after which he retired to Balderstone, where he died in 1694, leaving a son John, born in 1678, and, according to Croston, another son, Thomas, born in 1690. The latter was set up by certain Southworths living at Bethnal Green, who claimed descent from the lords of Samlesbury, asserting that this Thomas had a son and namesake, born Sept. 17, 1724, who quitted his native place early in life in consequence of a dispute with his family on religious matters, he having become a convert to the Protestant faith (vide Croston's Hist. of the Ancient Hall of Samlesbury). The claim of the Bethnal Green Southworths was based on two documents which had come into their possession—a lease of twelve acres in Ribbleton, Fishwick, and Brockholes, originally granted to Hugh Farington, of Elston, gent., 1680, and an assignment in 1714 of the small interest that Thomas Southworth, of Samlesbury, gent., possessed in the same premises, which were then in the tenure of John Gregson, of Ribbleton, gent., who had married his mother, Jane Southworth, the niece and heiress-at-law of the said Hugh Farington, who died intestate in 1701. Under any circumstances the Thomas Southworth of Bethnal was not likely to be the eldest son of Thomas Southworth, of Samlesbury. Some of the family continued to reside in Ribbleton, and intermarried with connections of the Faringtons. Ralph Southworth, of Ribbleton, married Catharine, daughter of John Kay, of Alston, and his wife Catharine, daughter of John Kendal, of Fulwood, and had issue five sons—(1) Richard, born in 1742, who went to Douay College in 1756, became professor of philosophy and divinity, and eventually V.P. till he left for the mission Aug. 25, 1786, and was stationed at Brockhampton, in Hants, till his death Nov. 19, 1817; (2) Henry, went to Douay as an ecclesiastical student Nov. 8, 1762, but died in the college Feb. 5, 1765; (3) Ralph, born July 20, 1747, who also arrived at Douay Nov. 8, 1762, after being at Dame Alice's school at Fernyhalgh, and on leaving the college became chaplain to the Augustinian convent at Louvain, removed with the nuns at the Revolution to Spetisbury, where he remained till his death July 13, 1810; (4) Thomas, born July 24, 1749, who also received a preliminary training under Dame Alice, after which he went to Sedgley Park School, then under the presidency of his relative, the Rev. Hugh Kendal, Dec. 21, 1765, thence in May, 1766, proceeded to Douay, and in 1777 or 1778 returned to Sedgley Park to assist Mr. Kendal, whom he succeeded as president in July, 1778, and continued in that office with an interval between 1793 and 1797 until his death at the Park June 11, 1816; and (5) William, who went to Sedgley from Dame Alice's school Dec. 21, 1765, thence proceeded to Douay in May, 1766, came to the mission at Hathersage, co. Derby, in 1780, and, after serving at Moseley, co. Stafford, and at another place on the borders of Norfolk and Suffolk, finally became chaplain to a small community of nuns settled first at Church Hill, co. Worcester, and then at Wyre Piddle, co. Stafford, where he died rather suddenly after visiting Lady Smythe at Wootton House April 28, 1814.

John Gregson, of Balderstoue, the second husband of Jane Farington, removed to Ribbleton after his marriage, and taking part in the Jacobite Rising of 1715 was convicted of high treason in 1716, but died immediately afterwards, for his will dated June 1 of that year, was proved at Chester in 1718. He and his wife had further mortgaged the Ribbleton estate, which was sold by his widow in 1720 to John Winckley, of Brockholes Hall and an attorney in Preston, only son of Thomas Winckley, registrar to the Duchy of Lancaster Chancery Court in Preston (Deeds of Farington Hall estate apud me). Farington Hall, Ribbleton, now corrupted into Faringdon Hall, has in recent times been converted into a popular place of amusement for Prestonians.

Thus, with the death of Domina Gregson, Mar. 1, 1722, was broken the last link of the knightly family of Southworth with its historical home of Samlesbury Hall, with all its glorious and sorrowful Catholic associations. Originally of Southworth, the family at a remote period settled at Samlesbury, and returned pedigrees at all the Visitations. Domina Gregson's first husband, Edward Southworth, was the descendant of the valiant Confessor of the Faith, Sir John Southworth, and third surviving son and heir of John Southworth and his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Philip Langton, of Low Hall, and his wife Mary, daughter of Abraham Abram, of Abram Hall.

† Of a family of farmers at Sholley, and so far as can be traced in no way allied to the Walmsleys of Sholley Hall, the lords of the manor.

‡ Dom Richard Placid Nelson, O.S.B., was the third son of Thomas Nelson, of Fairhurst Hall in Wrightington, Esq., by Anne, daughter of Thomas Hesketh, of Maynes Hall in Little Singleton, Esq. He probably served Osson House, Walton-le-Dale, from about 1713 to May, 1718, when he removed the mission to Cuerden till his death. He was buried at Walton Jan. 28, 1723, being described in the register as "Richard Nelson, batel" (L.P.R.S. xxxvii, 277). His missionary career will be treated under Brownedge.

* Edward Brettargh, of Heath Charnock, gent., second son of James Brettargh, of Brettargh Holt, co. Lanc., Esq., of a strong Puritan family which returned a pedigree at Dugdale's Visitation in 1664, became a Catholic and was convicted of recusancy at Ormskirk July 22, 1700. He also appears with a daughter in a list of recusants at Chester, dated Nov. 15, 1706, with the note that his estates were much indebted. His son Jonathan (named after his father's elder brother, Jonathan Brettargh, of Brettargh Holt, aged eight at the Visitation of 1664, and the last squire to occupy the hall) resided at Ulnes Walton when he was convicted of recusancy at Lancaster April 30, 1717, and by his wife Jenet was the father of Edward, James, and Richard, besides two daughters, Anne and Margaret. Richard became steward to the Stanleys of Hooton, co. Chester, and his will proved in 1746, describes him as of Hooton, gent. His son and namesake held a similar position to the Blundells of Ince Blundell, and resided at Ince. He married Helen, daughter of Henry Eccles, of Meanfields (vide C.R.S. ix, 178), and had issue—Richard, born in July, 1766, who was sent to Douay College July 26, 1778, whence in theology he proceeded to St. Gregory's at Paris Oct. 12, 1786, but returned to Douay Nov. 14, 1787, received the subdiaconate, and was then sent to teach at St. Omer's College Mar. 3, 1790. There he was ordained deacon, but the College was seized by the revolutionists, and the inmates imprisoned at Doullens, where he expired under the hardships July 24, 1794, aged 28 (Gillow, Biog. Dict. i, 290); his brother Henry became a calico-printer in Manchester, and married Mary, daughter of James Sidgreaves, of Inglewhite Lodge, by his second wife Martha, daughter of George Crook, of Bank Hall, Broughton; and daughters, Elizabeth, spinster, of Ince Blundell, and Anne, spinster, buried at The Willows, Kirkham, Dec. 24, 1837, aged 74. Henry was the father of the Rev. Henry Brettargh, of Dodding Green, Westmoreland, who died Nov. 5, 1916, aged 90; Mary, who married her cousin, Edward Sidgreaves, of Grimsargh House, Esq., and was mother of Fr. Edward Sidgreaves, S.J.; and Eliza, eventually coheirress, who married at Burnley, May 24, 1853, Richard Leeming, of Greaves House, Lancaster, and Lentworth Hall in Wyresdale, Esq., J.P., whose eldest son is Richard Brettargh Leeming, of London, Esq., barrister-at-law.

* The Lemon House family represented a branch of the Woodcocks of Woodcock Hall in the adjoining township of Cuerden, which Dr. Kuerden, the Lancashire antiquary, writing in the seventeenth century, describes as a "fayre-built house upon the lower Cuerden Green . . . . the ancient inheritance of John Woodcoc and his family for 400 or 500 years," of which an imperfect pedigree is given by Abraham in his Hist. of Blackburn, p. 733. John Woodcock alias fiarington, O.S.F., martyred at Lancaster Aug. 7, 1646, was a younger son of Thomas Woodcock, gent., and Dorothy, daughter of James Anderton, of Clayton Hall, Esq. Richard Woodcock, of Walton-le-dale, died in 1641, possessed of lands in Walton, Whittle, Cuerden, and also the estate of Bank Hall in Broughton, the ancient seat of the Singletons, which, however, may have been in secret trust, for towards the close of the century it was nominally vested in the Claytons for the Church, the Rev. George Crook being in possession. Lemon House was purchased from William Lemon, of Preston, gent., in 1663, by John Woodcock, of Walton Wood.

Richard's son died in 1690, leaving issue by his wife Elizabeth—Richard his son and heir, of Lemon House and Euxton, John, James, and William. Richard mortgaged Lemon House, and died at Euxton about 1694, leaving sons John and William, the elder son being a minor at his father's death, and he with the consent of his grandfather's surviving trustee, Christopher Preston, of Leyland, gent., and Robert Scarisbrick, of Scarisbrick Hall, Esq., further mortgaged the estate in 1720, 1723, 1724, etc., and getting into Chancery, the mortgages being unredeemed, was sold by the mortgagees some years after 1733. The last John Woodcock of Lemon House registered as a Catholic non-juror in 1717 estate at Walton and Clayton Brook, and his mother, Elizabeth Woodcock, of Walton, widow, property at Euxton. He had a son Richard, living in 1722, who apparently predeceased his father before 1742, when John was described as late of Lemon House. The latter's death, Jan. 8, 1758, is later recorded in these registers as late of Lemon House.

* Dom John Placid Acton, O.S.B., born in London about 1667 (Birt, Obits O.S.B.), was chaplain to the Langtons at Low Hall in Hindley, where he died Nov. 25, and was buried at Wigan Nov. 28, 1727.

* Richard Abbot, of Lower Hall in Samsbury, belonging to the Walmesleys, of Dunkenhalth, was steward for the estate, and his "Journal" was edited in 1864 by Dr. Alexander Goss, bishop of Liverpool, for the Chetham Society, vol. lxi. He was originally in the service of the famous cavalier Caryl, 3rd Viscount Molyneux at Croxteth, by whom he was ordered on April 13, 1689, to go to Ireland to fetch over his daughter, Lady Gormanston, wife of Jenico Preston, Viscount Gormanston of Meath, who was outlawed for his adherence to James II, but Abbot was apprehended on the ship whilst in the Mersey and imprisoned in Liverpool till July 3, when he was sent to London and committed to Newgate. Eventually he was tried for high treason at Lancaster at the summer assizes in 1691, and obtained his acquittal after great trouble and expense. On May 15, 1692, he married Jane Prince, then aged 23 years 7 months and 11 days. After the Rising of 1715 he was convicted of recusancy at the Lancaster Sessions April 10, 1716, and in 1717 he registered his estate as a Catholic non-juror, describing himself as of Lower Hall in Samsbury, gent., and returning Holt House in Eccleston and Whiston, parish of Prescott, on lease for his own and wife's lives from Richard Worthington, of Blainscow Hall, Esq., and his late wife Margaret, daughter and heir of Richard Alcock, of Eccleston, gent. Lower Hall was the seat of the Franciscan mission.

* Dom Richard Anselm Walmsley, O.S.B., was the second son of Richard Walmsley, of Sholley Hall, Esq., by Jane, daughter of John Hoghton, of Park Hall, Esq. The pedigree says he died on May 5th, whilst Snow (Necrology) says the 12th. He was professed at Dieulward in 1710 and came on the mission to Woolston in 1719 till death at Ormskirk.

† These Tootells can be traced in the Brindle and Walton parish registers for a long period without showing any connection with the Tootells of Lower Healey Hall, from whom, no doubt, they originally derived. At this time they farmed the Holt, which had been sold by the Gerards to the Walmsleys after they settled at Haughton.

* The White Bull in Preston was a noted Catholic Inn kept by Richard Jackson previous to the Rising of 1715, and subsequently by Mr. Melling of the family which farmed Fishwick Hall.

† George Clifton, of Preston, gent., was the second son of Thomas Clifton (nephew and heir to Sir Thomas Clifton, Bart.), of Clifton, Westby, and Lytham, Esq., by Eleanor Alethea, daughter of Richard Walmesley, of Dunkenhalth, Esq. He was outlawed on account of the Rising of 1715 (Forfeited Estates Papers, L. 3, P.R.O.; Payne, Records, p. 87). His wife is entered above as predeceasing him on May 12, 1735. He was a benefactor to the Brindle mission and appears on the list of Obligations for three Masses.

Snow (Necrology) gives the date of his death as Jan. 11, 1740, but the above entry is confirmed by his burial register at Walton—" 31 Decr., 1739, William Chamney, gentleman " (L.P.R.S. xxxvii, p. 298).

† Newhouse was the seat of the mission in Brindle.

‡ John Girlington, son of Richard Girlington, of Withnell, was convicted of recusancy at the Lancaster Sessions April 30, 1717. Alice Procter, he had only married on May 10th preceding her death. He married secondly, Oct. 23, 1740, Miss Bridget Battersby, likewise from the district of Tunstall. The family continued to reside at Withnell for many years later, for James Girlington appears in the registers as sponsor at baptisms in 1770-2.

* Domina Anna Cuerden, granddaughter of Edward Langton, of Low Hall, Esq., was widow of Matthew Cuerden, of Clayton-le-Dale and Cuerden, apparently son of William Cuerden, of the same, noticed hereafter. The Cuerdens of Cuerden and Walton were of very ancient lineage. The parent stem returned a pedigree at the Visitation of 1567, and ended with three sisters and coheireses—Mary wife of George Chatterton, of Streta, co. Stafford, gent., Alice wife of Henry Banastre, of Bank Hall, Esq., whose daughter Alice married Sir Thomas Haggerston, of Haggerston Castle, co. Northumberland, Bart., and Isabel wife of Alexander Rigby, of Wigan, gent. Cuerden Hall, near Walton-le-Dale, passed to the Parkers of Entwistle with the marriage of the daughter of Christopher Banastre of Bank Hall, grandson of Henry Banastre by his third wife Ellen, daughter of Ralph Standish, of Standish Hall, Esq., and from that period Cuerden has remained the seat of the Parkers and their present representative. Through a daughter of the coheireses' uncle, William Cuerden, the Lancashire antiquarian, Dr. Richard Kuerden, of Preston, claimed to represent the original Cuerdens of Cuerden, and entered an intricate and somewhat fantastical pedigree at the Visitation of 1664. The original Cuerdens were always staunch recusants, and intermarried with the Catholic families of Orrell, Woodcock, farington, Chorley, Eyves, etc. The Cuerdens represented by the husband of the lady of the text were an offshoot from the territorial lords of Cuerden, and, whilst generally residing at Walton and Clayton, always seem to have retained estate in Cuerden.

† George Abbot, of Cnerdale, probably a near relative of Richard Abbot, of Lower Hall, Samlesbury, q.v., followed the same profession, becoming steward to Nicholas Blundell, of Crosby Hall, Esq., Nov. 20, 1713, according to Gibson's Blundell's Diary, pp. 119–20, where the editor confuses him with Richard Abbot. His son John, also of Cuerdale, by his wife Margaret, seems to have had a son and namesake, whose son married Ann, daughter of Thomas Burgess, Monmouth, a mission commenced by Dr. Thomas Burgess of Monmouth, whom he succeeded in that mission when his uncle was raised to the episcopate as bishop of Clifton in 1851, there remained till he retired in 1894 to reside with his sister, Mrs. Clarkson, in Lancaster, where he died Feb. 18, 1904, aged 83; and Sr. Anne Abbot, O.S.F., who died at Taunton Aug. 5, 1856, aged 27.

* James Woodcock, of Walton-le-Dale, yeoman, second son of John Woodcock, of Lemon House, was buried at Walton Jan. 5, 1741 (L.P.R.S. xxxvii, 299). He was a Catholic non-juror in 1717, and registered a freehold estate in Walton and another in Whittle-le-Woods. In 1722 he had a son William. As a benefactor one Mass was to be said on his anniversary according to the tabella missarum at Brindle.

* William Winckley, baptized Sept. 6, 1677, son of William Winckley, of Banister Hall, Esq., and his wife Isabel, daughter of Richard Elston, of Higher Brockholes Hall, gent., was admitted into the English College at Rome Sept. 12, 1699, aged 22 (Foley, Records S.J., vol. vi), where he was ordained priest Mar. 22, 1704, left the college for England via Paris on April 15, 1706, and served Banister Hall and other places. In 1712 he was still residing at Banister Hall, but frequently said Mass at Fox Hall near Blackpool, a sporting seat of Thomas Tyldesley the Jacobite squire, whose confessor he was, and who frequently mentions him in his diary. On Jan. 15, 1716-7, he was convicted of recusancy at Lancaster as "Mr. William Winckley, a reputed Priest of Walton-le-Dale," and probably on account of the outlawry of his brother Edward as a traitor he removed to Barbles Moor, Ulnes Walton, in the parish of Croston, the seat of Christopher Gradell, Esq., who had married as his second wife his aunt Anne, daughter of William Winckley, of Banister Hall, gent., whose father, Thomas Winckley, of Billington, gent., younger son of Thomas Winckley, of Winckley Hall, gent., had obtained Banister Hall with his wife Rosamund, sister and heiress to her brother Thomas, and daughter of Edward Walmesley, of Banister Hall in Walton, gent., younger son of Thomas Walmesley, of Sholley Hall, Esq. Mr. Winckley became rural dean of Leyland Hundred, and remained at Barbles Moor till his death Aug. 25, 1742, aged almost 65, being interred in the private burial ground attached to the mansion. Bishop Goss informed the writer that an old stone cross, plain and rough, and without inscription, marked the spot where his remains were laid in the garden at Gradells in Barbles Moor. On Nov. 1, 1740, he had established a Fund of £400 at Douay College for the education of a youth for the priesthood, preference to be given to youths akin to the Winckleys or Gradells, his nephews Rev. Thomas Winckley, of Banister Hall, and Christopher Gradell, of Barbles Moor, as well as Bishop Edward Dicconson, V.A.-L.D., being appointed trustees. This foundation is now at Ushaw College. He also gave £20 to the Lancashire Infirm Clergy Fund.

* William Cowling, of Chorley, yeoman, as a Catholic non-juror in 1717 registered a house in Chorley for the lives of himself and Bridget his wife. Apparently he was living at Latham when he was convicted of recusancy at Lancaster April 10, 1716, and finally he died at Euxton, his father and namesake having died at Leyland in 1704. It is probable that he was the father of the Rev. John Cowling (C.R.S. xvi, 572).

† Edward Winckley had sold Banister Hall Feb. 1, 1738, and retired to Preston. He was interred at Walton by the side of his wife Mary, who had preceded him on Dec. 7, 1709. As a member, his death was recorded by the First Catholic Charitable Society of Preston.

‡ Edward Langton was the last male representative of the ever-staunch Catholic family seated at Low Hall in Hindley, descended from the Langtons, barons of Newton-in-Makerfield, lords of the manors of Walton-le-Dale and Lanton acquired with the heiress of the Banastres temp. Edw. II, whilst the family continued to be manorial lords of West Langton, co. Leicester, of whom was Cardinal Stephen Langton, Archbishop of Canterbury. The barony of Newton expired in 1604 with the death of Sir Thomas Langton, who was buried in Westminster Abbey. The Langtons of Low returned a pedigree at Dugdale's Visitation of Lancashire in 1664, commencing with Peter Langton of Low, whose son Robert married a daughter of Sir Peter Leicester, of Tofte, co. Chester. Edward Langton, of Low Hall, youngest son of Philip Langton, succeeded to his father's estates, and was a Catholic non-juror in 1717. Upon his death in 1733 his grandson William Pugh inherited the Low estate, which his nephew and heir-at-law, Edward Philip Pugh, who married Bridget Coytmore, of Coytmore, and had two daughters and coheirs, sold to the Duke of Bridgewater in 1765. Edward Langton's great aunt, Elizabeth Langton, married John Southworth, of Samlesbury Hall, Esq., and her brother was Dom John Ambrose Langton, O.S.B., professed at Dieulward in 1615, and his nephew Thomas, born 1642, son of Edward Langton, of Newton, gent., and his wife Helen Harrison, became a secular priest at the English College at Rome in 1669 under the alias of Joseph Harrison (Foley, Records S.J. vi). Another nephew of the Benedictine, John Langton alias Baldwin, came to the mission from Lisbon in 1670, and died at Higher Shuttlings fields in Walton-le-Dale in 1684. The Langtons suffered heavily for their religion, both in fine and imprisonment, as well as for their loyalty to the Stuarts, Philip Langton being one of the prisoners in the Jacobite trials in 1694. Low Hall, now a farmhouse surrounded by a moat, formerly contained a chapel which was served throughout the days of persecution, and towards the close of the seventeenth century it became established as a Benedictine mission, transferred when the estate was sold by the Pughs to Strangeways, and ultimately removed in 1789 to Hindley, where it still continues.

* Rev. Richard Walmesley, born Dec. 14, 1709, was the eldest son of Thomas Walmesley, of Sholley Hall, Esq., and his wife Mary, daughter of William Colegrave, of London, Esq. A brief memoir, where his death is stated from another source to be April 25, appears in C.R.S xx, 225.

connected, but their pedigree is somewhat difficult to trace. The following names appear in the Preston Guild Rolls (C.R.S. ix)—Ralph, gent., 1742, John of Euxton, gent., 1662, Edward and Ralph, sons of Thomas then deceased, 1682. Edward farnworth with his wife Alice and William farnworth, of the parish of Wigan, were on the recusant roll for 1667, whilst Edward farnworth of Euxton was buried at Leyland Sept. 3, 1660, and Edward and Ralph sons of Thomas then deceased were at the Guild of 1682. There were others of the same names residing at Wheelton and Walton. Ann Farnworth, daughter of Edward of Euxton, married at Leyland Aug. 2, 1670, Thomas Rishton, of Preston, gent. Edward Farnworth, of Runshaw Hall, gent., brother of the two Benedictines and the eldest son of John who was buried at Leyland Nov. 16, 1691, was described as of Fishwick, in the parish of Preston, at the time of his marriage at Walton-le-Dale, with Dorothy, daughter of John Crosse, of Crosse Hall, Chorley, and Shaw Hill, Esq., May 3, 1702. Her sister Jane was the wife of John France, of Little Eccleston Hall and Rawcliffe Hall, Esq., and her family had intermarried with the Langtons of Low Hall, the Banastres of Banke Hall, and other county families. Nicholas Blundell, of Crosby, speaks of calling at Runshaw Hall to see Miss Farnworth, sister of Edward, on Oct. 5, 1713 (Gibson, Diary, p. 119). Edward had a daughter Mary, christened at Leyland May 31, 1703 (Leyland Registers), and she became the wife of William Patten, of London, Esq., heir of Thomas Patten, of Patten Lane, Warrington (vide Pedigree of Wilson-Patten, Lord Winmarleigh), and her son, Dom Thomas Patten, O.S.B., born in 1727, died June 4, 1787. Edward Farnworth, of Runshaw Hall, gent., was convicted of recusancy at Lancaster Sept. 3, 1716, and in the following year registered his estate as a Catholic non-juror. He died in 1747. His daughter may have been his only child and heiress, for Runshaw Hall ceased to be occupied by Farnworths about this time.

* Richard Gerard, born May 10, 1701 (Broughton Registers, L.P.R.S. xviii), was a younger son of Evan Gerard, of Alston and Haighton, gent. (son of John Gerard, of Brindle, gent.), whose marriage-covenant with his wife Ann was dated Feb. 8, 1696. He went to London and engaged in business as a draper, his residence being in the parish of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields. Unfortunately the printed marriage-registers of Brindle parish church are not brought down to this date, and hence the surname of Richard's wife Helen has not been ascertained. She may have been a Heatley, daughter or niece of Peter Heatley, of Whittle-Woods, one of the witnesses to the marriage, a Catholic non-juror in 1717, and a younger brother of Hugh Heatley, grandfather of William Heatley, Esq., of Brindle Lodge. Richard Gerard's eldest brother John died unmarried and was buried at Broughton June 20, 1744, when "Dominus Richard Gerard de Gerard's Hall, Haighton," and his son, succeeded to the estate. He died May 31, and was buried at Broughton June 3, 1747. Gerard's Hall subsequently became known as Haighton House, after the new residence was erected just below the old hall by Richard's eldest son, Evan John Gerard. The latter married first Elizabeth, dau. of Richard Farrer, Esq., twice Lord Mayor of York, by Margaret, dau. of John Napier of York, merchant tailor, and, secondly, Elizabeth, relict of Henry Roper, 10th Baron Teynham, by whom he had no issue. Evan Richard, the son and heir by the first marriage, married Elizabeth, daughter of George Blanchard, of Alston, gent., and died Oct. 25, 1823, aged 51, leaving a son, a second Evan John, captain in the Royal Lancashire Volunteers, whose portrait in oil is still at Haighton, who died Nov. 7, 1832, aged 28, the last male representative of the Gerards of Haighton. The estate with the contents of the mansion, including an old library, was then sold by his only sister, a Franciscan nun at Taunton, to James Francis Anderton, Esq., whose wife Mary, daughter of James Sidgreaves, of Inglewhite Lodge, Esq., was first cousin to the last of the Gerards, their mother being sister to the wife of Evan Richard Gerard. Mass was very frequently said at Haighton, where the ancient chalice is still used in the domestic chapel.

† John Walmesley was the third son of Richard Walmesley, of Sholley Hall, Esq., and his wife Jane, daughter of John Hoghton, of Park Hall, Esq. From St. Omers he had entered the Society at Walton, but had been dismissed owing to his mind giving way, and thus being omitted from the printed Collectanea S.J., his missionary career cannot at present be traced.

* By her first husband, John Harrison, of Lea, administration to whose estate was granted in 1738, she was the mother of the Rev. John Harrison, of Cottam, and Lawrence Cottam, of Preston (C.R.S. vi, 168; xv, 110). Her second husband was a Gradwell of the Clifton family. James Harrison, of Preston, probably brother to John of Lea, was a member of the Catholic Brethren, and either died or his subscription to the Society ceased in Feb. 1737, his will being proved in 1738. Further information about the family may be culled from the great Harrison Trial, edited by Earwaker in 1887.

† Dom Robert Michael Paul Gilmore, O.S.B., a native of Ramsbury, co. Wilts., was chaplain to the Gascoignes at Parlington Hall and Aberford, co. York. According to the Benedictine Necrology he died on Feb. 20, 1748.

‡ For note on the Vaux or Vause family, vide C.R.S. vi, 94n. This branch, in humble circumstances, of the Blackrod family appears in this locality towards the close of the seventeenth century. Stephen Vause, of Samsbury, was a recusant in 1716.

§ From this family derived Dom James Edmund Poole, O.S.B., born in Liverpool in 1819, and also died there in 1878.

* Elizabeth Hutchinson and Anne, wife of Hugh Heatley, of Samlesbury, yeoman, were sisters of Dom Joseph Wilfrid Hutchinson, O.S.B., the former priest at Brindle, Dom Matthew Dunstan Hutchinson, O.S.B., who died at Lamspring Dec. 2, 1730 (Snow, Necrology), and Mr. William Hutchinson. Her will, in which she describes herself as of Hexham in Northumberland, spinster, was proved at Chester in 1749.

† Edward Winckley, Esq., M.D., was the second son of Edward Winckley, of Banister Hall in Little Walton, Esq., and joined with his father and brother Thomas in selling that estate Feb. 1, 1738-9, died in Preston and was interred with his forefathers at Walton-le-Dale Mar. 18, 1750. He married at Brindle Catholic chapel in 1743 Winifred, daughter of his father's old friend, Thomas Tyldesley, Esq., of Myerscough Lodge, and she was buried at Walton-le-Dale Dec. 30, 1790, without issue. Dr. Winckley was nephew to the Rev. William Winckley, q.v., and his elder brother, the Rev. Thomas Winckley alias Elston, born Mar. 15, 1698, was ordained at Douay College, of which he was prefect-general for some years, 1728-30, finally became chaplain to the Poor Clares at Dunkirk, where his sister Catharine was a nun as likewise his cousin, Jane Clifton (C.R.S. xiv), and there he died Mar. 9, 1740, n.s. A third brother, the Rev. James Winckley, was also ordained at Douay, but coming home in ill-health, died at Banister Hall, and was buried at Walton Mar. 1, 1726. Two other sisters were—Jane, born Dec. 12, 1697, who went to Cambrai Aug. 12, 1720, with the intention of becoming a Benedictine nun, but left on Nov. 12 in the same year, and Sr. Anne Austin Winckley, O.S.B., who died at Paris June 23, 1759 (C.R.S. xiii; Weldon, Chron. Notes, Appx. 43). The account of the family appearing C.R.S. vi, 150-1, should be corrected with this notice.

* Cecilia, daughter of John Butler, of London, merchant, a cadet of the Butlers of Rawcliffe Hall, was the first wife of Robert Hoghton Dalton, Esq., of Thurnham Hall and Park Hall, married in 1740, and was interred in the chapter-house of Cockersand Abbey, the family burial-place of the Daltons of Thurnham. Her son, John Dalton, Esq., succeeded to the estates, married Mary, daughter of Sir Thomas Gage, of Hengrave Hall, Suffolk, Bart.

† Alexander Osbaldeston, of Sunderland Hall in Balderstone, Esq., was the last of the family to reside there. The hall has been replaced by a farmhouse, but in one of the walls is inserted a relic of the old mansion displaying the arms of the Osbaldestons and the initials of Alexander Osbaldeston, grandson of Sir Alexander Osbaldeston, of Osbaldeston, and his wife Rosamond, daughter of John Bradley, of Bradley Hall, Esq., with the date of its re-edification in 1596.

* Dom Robert Edward Ho[u]ghton, O.S.B., born at Park Hall, was the third son of William Hoghton, of Park Hall in Charnock Richard, Esq., and his wife Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of Robert Dalton, of Thurnham Hall, Esq., whose marriage settlement was dated Aug. 15, 1683. Mrs. Hoghton inherited Thurnham Hall, Cockersand Abbey, and the Bulk estates, whilst her sister Dorothy, the other coheir, who became the wife of Edward Riddell, of Swinburne Castle, Northumberland, Esq., obtained the Aldcliffe Hall estate. John Hoghton, the eldest son and heir, assumed the name of Dalton about 1710, and married Frances, daughter of Sir Pyers Mostyn, of Talacre, co. Flint, 2nd Bart.; William, the second son, an officer in the army, died unmarried at Thurnham Hall, and was buried at Cockersand Abbey Dec. 10, 1712 (vide Tyldesley Diary); and Robert, the third son and the subject of the text, who passed under the name of Edward, was professed at Dieulward in 1710, thence proceeded to Lambspring in 1717 and ordained priest in 1720, when he came to the mission in Lancashire and took charge of the old family chaplaincy at Park Hall. He also served the chapel at Low Hall, the seat of the Langtons, after the death of Dom John Placid Acton, O.S.B., Nov. 25, 1727, and afterwards at Strangeways in Hindley, a property of the Culcheths of Culcheth Hall. He was Definitior of the Benedictine province from 1745 till his death at Park Hall Aug. 26, 1751.

† Lovely Hall in Salisbury, previously the property of the Parkers, was acquired by the Winders of Winder in Melling, and his and his wife's initials with the date 1735 appear on the easing pipes in front of the house. His will was proved at Chester in 1747, and his widow's death is recorded above. Edward Winder, of Lovely Hall, died in 1759 (Abram, Hist. of Blackburn, p. 656). Subsequently the hall was occupied by James Anderton, cotton manufacturer, who married a Tootell, and was the father of Roger Anderton, born 1759, died 1831, whose son, James Francis Anderton, Esq., of Haighton, was the father of the present Wilfred Anderton, of Haighton, Esq., J.P.

Eventually the Lovely estate was purchased by the Starkies of Huntroyd, and the old seventeenth century mansion, consisting of a central block with projecting and gabled wings, was enlarged and restored by Le Gendre Nicholas Starkie, Esq., of Huntroyd, as a temporary residence for himself. The Winders were in some way allied to the Waltons of Little Walton Hall in Walton-le-Dale, and after the sale of their ancestral estate by Thomas Walton on Oct. 26, 1682, according to the deed cited by Abram, and given by the present writer to Mr. H. C. Walton, of Preston, who was, so far as is known, in no way descended from the original owners, the alienator removed to Little Winder Hall, and was residing there with his brother early in the eighteenth century, and frequently appear as "Coz Waltons" in the diary of Squire Tyldesley. Some account of the family will be found C.R.S. vi, 153-4.

* Vide note under Dec. 18, 1723.

† William Pugh had inherited Low Hall estate after the death of his grandfather Edward Langton, in 1733, vide under note Jan. 25, 1743. Low Hall in Hindley, now a farm-house, surrounded by a moat, contained a chapel which was served throughout the days of persecution, and towards the close of the seventeenth century became a Benedictine mission, but was transferred to Strangeways in Hindley, a property of the Culcheths of Culcheth Hall, when the Low estate was sold by William Pugh's nephew and heir-at-law, Philip Pugh Pugh, in 1765. There it remained till a new chapel commenced in 1788 was opened in 1789, which was replaced by a church in 1870. William Pugh appears in the list of "reconciliations" on Mar. 23, 1754, as "Armiger de Low" in Hindley, and his will was proved at Chester in 1755.

‡ Anna Maria Tyldesley, second daughter of Edward Tyldesley, Esq., of Morleys Hall, Myerscough Lodge, and Fox Hall, by Anne, daughter of Sir Thomas Fleetwood, of Colwich Hall, co. Stafford, 2nd Bart., whose great-grandfather, John Fleetwood, of Penwortham, co. Lancaster, had married Joan, daughter of Thomas Langton, of Walton Hall, baron of Newton. She was sister of Thomas Tyldesley, the Jacobite squire, and is mentioned in his diary originally edited by the present writer in 1871 and republished in 1873. Miss Tyldesley resided in Preston. Her will of Mar. 6, 1753 was proved Dec. 5, 1755.

Balderstone. Two of them were non-jurors in 1717, Lawrence Tomlinson, of Fulwood, and Robert Tomlinson, of Alston. They come in Broughton registers.

* In 1735 three Benedictines,—D.D. Robert Ambrose Davis, Edward Dunstan Rogers and Robert Paul Gilmore,—were about Sir Edward Gascoigne's estates near Parlington, Aberford, Gilmore being suspected of keeping a school. He died at Parlington Feb. 20, 1748, the year when Dom Hugh Frankland came. He died at Huddleston Hall in the adjoining parish of Sherburn-in-Elmet (the property of Lady Gascoigne) after 55 years in the Order. Bishop Thomas Dominic Williams, O.P., died there in 1740, aged 79 (C.R.S. xiv; Birts' Obits; North Genealogist iii). Sir Edward and Lady Gascoigne left Parlington on May 16, 1743, and resided at Cambrai until his death May 24, 1750. Lady G. (Mary Hungate) returned to England, and died at York Jan. 14, 1764, having re-married, Nov. 15, 1753, Gerard, second son of Walter Strickland of Sizergh (Thoresby Soc. xvii, 155-7).—J.S.H.

† Dom Thomas Placid Hutton, O.S.B., was a son of Thomas Hutton, of Eldon, in the parish of St. Andrew, Auckland, co. Durham, gent., by Dorothy, daughter of William Pinkney, of Silton-Paynell, co. York, gent. He was professed at Lamspring in 1714, ordained in 1720, came to the north province in 1729, was at Much Woolton in 1732 till his death there, May 17, 1755. He was brother to Dom William Bede Hutton, O.S.B., and nephew of Dom William Cuthbert Hutton, O.S.B. (Snow, Necrology, pp. 80 and 111). The Huttons were a very ancient family and highly connected. They returned pedigrees at the Visitations of Durham and Yorks. (Payne, Non-jurors, pp. 52-3; Surtees iii, 333; Visitations of Durham, 1615, and York, 1665).

‡ Joanna Sudell, or Siedal. By her first husband, Mr. Thomas Holderness, of Ribbleton, she was mother of Dom Peter Dunstan Holderness, O.S.B., and Bro. Francis Holderness, O.S.B. (Snow, Necrology, pp. 122 and 182).

§ Ralph Towneley-Standish, born June 18, 1739, was the second son of William Towneley, of Towneley Hall, Esq., and his wife, Cecilia Standish, sister and heiress of Ralph Howard Standish, of Standish Hall, who died s.p. in 1735, and inherited the Standish Hall and Borwick Hall estates. * Dom Robert Austin Turner, O.S.B., born in 1721, was the son of William Turner, a gardener in Brindle, and his wife Bridget, who survived her husband and died Jan. 28, 1760. William Turner was convicted of recusancy at Lancaster April 30, 1717, and as a non-juror registered a leasehold property in Brindle subject to £20 to his sister Helen, born July 17, 1696, they being children of Hugh Turner, of Brindle, who died Aug. 23, 1714 (L.P.R.S. xi, 84, 211). William's eldest son Hugh also resided in Brindle, where he died Feb. 3, 1760. Dom Austin was professed at Lambspring in 1740, was at Douay in 1750, and thence coming to the mission in 1752 was placed at Hesleyside, Northumberland, the seat of the Charltons, where he died as above on July 29, but according to Snow (Necrology, p. 112) July 30, 1757.

† Thomas Trafford, second son of John Trafford, of Croston Hall, Esq., by Catherine, daughter and eventual coheir of Thomas Culcheth, of Culcheth Hall, Esq., and younger brother of John Trafford, of Croston Hall, Esq. (whose nephew, John Trafford, of Croston, eldest son of Humphrey Trafford, his youngest brother, succeeded to both Croston Hall and Trafford Park), died unmarried at Chorley May 11, 1758.

‡ The Johnsons were a very respectable Catholic family of maltsters in Sidgreaves Lane, Lea, a property purchased by Adam Leigh, Esq., of Westleigh, Lea, about fifty years ago. They were always recusants, and constantly appear in Catholic records. They also owned property in the adjoining hamlet of Cottam, where they resided in the first half of the eighteenth century. Subsequently they settled in Preston. There were one or two ecclesiastics in the family, of whom were Bro. Joseph Johnson, O.S.B., professed at Dieulward and died Sept. 19, 1786, Bro. Robert James Johnson, O.S.B., born 1714, professed at Dieulward in 1740, and died Nov. 17, 1797; and Grace Johnson, * Fr. John Henry Waring, O.S.F., of Lower Hall in Samlesbury, who died July 1, 1816, and Fr. Bruno Waring, O.S.F., who died at Douay in 1779, were of this family.

† The family of Blackledge, originally Blacklach, was of some antiquity in Leyland, no doubt deriving from Blacklach House, subsequently known as the Old Hall of Leyland, in which parish the family continued to possess property for many generations. In the reign of Elizabeth John Blackledge, of Leyland, married Janet, daughter of William Fleetwood, of Heskin Hall, Esq., her brother John marrying Joan, daughter of Sir Thomas Langton, baron of Newton, and her sister Agnes being the wife of Thomas Gillibrand, of Chorley Hall. The Blackledges subsequently resided at Copthurst in Whittle-Woods, and a stone in Leyland churchyard is inscribed with the names of a number of the family buried there—John Blackledge, of Copthurst, yeoman, Sept. 9, 1688, and others. William Blackledge, of Wheelton, yeoman, was a Catholic non-juror in 1717, and registered freehold and leasehold estate in which his son Henry and daughter Anne were interested. It was the father and son who by deed dated May 1, 1729, conveyed to Matthew Talbot, of Wheelton, the premises for the chapel there. The son's wife was Jane, daughter of Oliver Whittle, of Wheelton. About 1832 Mr. William Blackledge purchased the estate of White Lee in Goosnargh, the ancient inheritance of the Keighleys (or Kighleys), which descended to his son, John Blackledge, of Clayton-le-Woods, who left his estate to the Andertons of Euxton Hall.

‡ Dom Anthony Cuthbert Hutchinson, O.S.B., a native of Yorkshire, probably son of William Hutchinson and nephew of Dom Joseph Wilfrid Hutchinson, O.S.B., the former missionary at Brindle, and Dom Matthew Dunstan Hutchinson, O.S.B., both of whom were born at Hexham in Northumberland, was missionary at Aberford, co. York, after the chaplaincy had ceased at Parlington Hall, the seat of the Gascoignes. His uncle, Mr. William, was brother to Mrs. Hugh Heatley.

† James Sharples, of Brindle, son of Henry and Helen of the same, married July 7, 1746, Isabella, daughter of John and Anne Sudell (Siedal, Siddle, Sydall, etc.), of Brindle, and had a family of whom was probably Philip Sharples, a professed cleric O.S.F. at Douai in 1767 (Thaddeus, Franciscans in Eng., p. 303). Of this family also were Bishop James Sharples and his brother, the Rev. Henry Sharples, of Alston, sons of William Sharples who had settled in Liverpool as a timber merchant (C.R.S. xv, 157-8, 55), and was the first importer of timber into Liverpool. The Bishop's nephew, Henry Sharples, of Oswaldcroft, Esq., J.P., born in 1808, died Dec. 17, 1874, and was buried underneath the Lady Chapel of St. Oswald's, which he had built (Burke, Catholic History of Liverpool). croft (died April 9, 1885), married Francesca Josephine, daughter of Marmaduke Charles Salvin, of Burn Hall, co. Durham, Esq., J.P., D.L. (by Caroline, daughter of Sir Charles Wolseley, of Wolsey Hall, co. Stafford, 7th Bart.), whose grandfather, William Salvin, of Croxdale Hall, co. Durham, had as his first wife Mary, daughter of Sir Edward Gascoigne, 5th Bart., thus forming a reminiscent link with the Gascoignes appearing in the Brindle register. Monica, one of the daughters of Henry Sharples, married Charles Joseph Sibeth, Esq., son of Werner Sibeth, of Downey Abbey, co. Herts, Esq.

* Doubtless of this family was Dom Richard Wolstan Ingham alias Walmesley, O.S.B., professed at Paris in 1630, ordained in 1634, and died at Paris 1638 (Snow, Necrology, p. 44).

† Mary Kighley, of Preston, was formerly housekeeper to Dom Thomas Simpson, O.S.B., of Cuerden.

‡ Widow of Hugh Heatley, of Samsbury, yeoman, and sister of Dom Joseph Wilfrid Hutchinson, O.S.B., the former missionary at Brindle. Her son, Mr. James Heatley, had removed from Samsbury to Dunkenhalgh, where he was probably agent to the Walmesley estate for the heiress, Lady Catherine Stourton, widow of Charles, 14th Lord Stourton, and previously wife of Robert, 7th Lord Petre, resided at Dunkenhalgh. Her ladyship died in 1785, and the Dunkenhalgh estate passed to her grandson, Robert Edward, 9th Lord Petre, and through him to his grandson, Henry William Petre, Esq., of Dunkenhalgh, whose descendants still reside there.

§ Mary Mather, relict of Robert Burgess, of Cronton, and wife of Nicholas Mather, of Clayton Brook, was mother of Thomas Burgess, of Clayton Brook, Dame Margaret Burgess, O.S.B., born in 1721, who died in prison at Compiègne during the French Revolution in 1795, and Dame Scholastica Burgess, O.S.B., who died in 1770. The Nicholas Mather of the text came from Abram, where his father, Nicholas Mather, yeoman, was a Catholic non-juror in 1717, subsequently resided at Newton-in-Matherfield, and he died in 1743. The Mathers at one time farmed Fishwick Hall, formerly the seat of the Eyves family, afterwards acquired by the Viscounts Molyneux of Sefton, and there was a chapel in the hall more or less served throughout penal times. Early in the reign of James II, Dom Bartholomew Gregory Hesketh, O.S.B., a younger son of Gabriel Hesketh, of White Hill in Goosnargh, Esq., erected a semi-public chapel adjoining Fishwick Hall, which was leased to the Benedictines by Caryl, 3rd Viscount Molyneux, for the three lives of—Dom James Mather, O.S.B., born at Fishwick Hall and then Prior of St. Lawrence's at Dieulward, who was professed there in 1668 and afterwards served in London till his death Jan. 16, 1724; Dom John Augustine Hudson, O.S.B., son of Alexander Hudson, of Fishwick, linen-weaver, a catholic non-juror in 1717, who was professed at Dieulward in 1686 and died at Flixton, Suffolk, in 1732; and Dom Hugo Gregory Helme, O.S.B., son of William Helme, of Blackmoor in Chipping and subsequently of Lea, gent., professed at Dieulward in 1686, succeeded Dom Gregory Hesketh at Fishwick Hall, and died there Aug. 11, 1696. The grant of the lease of Fishwick Hall and estate included a messuage in the possession of Edward Ireland alias Green, who died in 1720. Dom Gregory Hesketh had been professed at Dieulward in 1653, and had served Fishwick Hall for some time before he obtained the lease for the benefit of his Order, and continued to do so till his death Jan. 25, when his remains were conveyed to the family burial-place at Goosnargh, and there interred Feb. 1, 1694-5. He had been definitor of the province from 1685 to 1693. The chapel which he had erected at Fishwick was furnished with organ and pulpit, and had two bells to call the congregation to service. At the revolution of 1688 the chapel fittings and altar furniture were hidden, and the two bells were taken down and buried—never to be rehung. Dom Gregory was succeeded at Fishwick by Dom Arthur Francis Watmough, O.S.B., born 1665, son of William Watmough, of Westby, who died in 1685. He was professed at Dieulward in 1684, came after ordination to Fishwick Hall, but did not stay long as he was appointed procurator at Rome in 1698, eventually became president-general, 1713-7, and died at Fonthill-Giffard, co. Wilts., Aug. 15, 1733 (Snow, Necrology, p. 199). Some of the Mathers after leaving Fishwick Hall settled at Broughton, Fulwood, Goosnargh, and Whittingham. Thomas Mather died at Goosnargh in 1775, and Nicholas Mather, formerly of Broughton, died at Whittingham in Goosnargh in 1785. One of these was the father of Dom James Cyril Mather, O.S.B., born 1769, professed at Lamspring in 1790, who died at Hildesheim Mar. 12, 1812. Nicholas Mather, the second husband of the lady of the text, who died in 1763, was probably the grandfather of Dom Cyril.

* He was evidently the Thomas Talbot, son of John and Alice, of Brindle, who married, Feb. 23, 1748, Dorothy, daughter of Richard and Alice Valentine, of Samesbury.

† She was the daughter of Alexander Osbaldeston, of Sunderland Hall, Esq., and his wife Lettice, daughter of John Aynsworth (or Ainsworth), of Pleasington Hall, Esq. Her father died in Sept., 1729. He registered his estate as a Catholic non-juror in 1717, declaring that £1,000 of his debts was due to his daughter Mary as her portion. Alexander Osbaldeston, of Preston, gent., was married at Broughton Jan. 17, 1748, to Ellen Clayton. He was probably son and heir to Alexander Osbaldeston, the younger, of Sunderland, and a nephew of Mary, but if so the marriage must have been a second one. Sunderland Hall estate had then been sold, and the family had removed to Preston. Abram, in his History of Blackburn, pp. 419-20, gives an account and pedigree of the family, but is very unsatisfactory about the last three generations. John Osbaldeston returned a pedigree at Dugdale's Visitation in 1664, when his son and heir Alexander was three years of age. John's wife was Anne, daughter of Richard Blackburne, gent., younger son of Richard Blackburne, of Scorton Hall, gent., and his wife Jane, daughter of William Aynesworth, of Newton, gent. The younger Richard founded the families seated at The Hill and The Brooks in Goosnargh, and his grandson, John Blackburne, of The Hill, gent., was the grandson of the Rev. James Blackburne, who died at the English College at Lisbon in July, 1754, having transferred The Hill in Goosnargh to the Franciscans, who had previously served the mission at White Hill in Goosnargh, the seat of the Heskeths, and finally in 1833-4 it was taken over by the Benedictines, who still retain the charge.

* Sr. Martha Rigby was a Poor Clare at Dunkirk, which Dom Placid Naylor records with characteristic caution.

† Dom Thomas Simpson, O.S.B., succeeded Dom Bernard Bradshaw alias Handford at Hanbridge or Little Mosney (Mosna) in Higher Walton in 1743, and like his predecessors served Cuerden, where he built a new chapel at Cuerden Green in 1746, and served both chapels till his sudden death whilst on a visit to the Benedictine mission at Ormskirk. Little Mosna, as it was usually called, was one of the old Benedictine missions in Walton-le-Dale, and its history will come under that of Brownedge.

‡ The Linakers were farmers at Altcar, where several of them were convicted of recusancy in April, 1716. Mary Linaker, widow, resided with her relations at Scarisbrick, being a sister of Dom William Placid Naylor.

* Anne Shuttleworth was apparently daughter of Richard Shuttleworth, of Preston and Brocksides, gent., who was executed as a traitor at Gallows Hill, Preston, Jan. 28, 1716, for joining Prince Charlie at Preston. His estate in Bilsborough was forfeited. He was a friend of Thomas Tyldesley, the Jacobite squire, and is frequently mentioned in his diary. The death of Anne's sister Jane appears in the following September.

† He may be identical with William Cuerden, of Clayton-le-Dale, chapman, son of Matthew Cuerden who was convicted of recusancy Sept. 3, 1717, and as a Catholic non-juror registered an estate there in which his infant son Thomas had an estate in fee simple; also freehold estates in Cuerden, mentioning therewith his sons Thomas and Matthew; and likewise a leasehold estate in Walton-le-Dale. Apparently Anne Cuerden, grand-daughter of Edward Langton, previously noticed as dying in 1740, was the widow of William Cuerden's second son Matthew. Fr. Thomas Cuerden, S.J., who first served in London, then became chaplain to the Cliftons at Westby Hall, and died at Scholes in 1793 was thought to be the elder son, but the date of his birth, June 25, 1718, as given by Foley (Records S. J. vii, 186) hardly can be reconciled with the foregoing registration. On the other hand, Fr. Zimmerman (Carmel in England, p. 369) says that Fr. John Hyacinth Cuerden, discaled Carmelite, born at Croston, June 23, 1696, was the son of William Cuerden and his wife Jane Rymer, and was ordained priest Sept. 21, 1720, was chaplain to Nicholas Blundell at Crosby Hall, afterwards served in the same capacity to Lord Molyneux at Sefton and Croxteth, and died in London Sept. 28, 1761. It should be remarked that his birth does not appear in the registers of Croston parish church.

‡ Ann Critchlow, of Goosnargh-cum-Newsham, widow of William Critchlow, of Clock House, Lea, gent., who died in 1711, registered as a Catholic non-juror in 1717, an estate in Woodplumpton for life as dower. The Critchlowes (Chrichlows, Crouchleys, or Critchleys) were of considerable antiquity. Roger Critchlowe, of Charnock Richard, settled at Lea through his marriage with Margaret, illegitimate daughter of Alexander Hoghton, of Lea Hall and Hoghton Tower, who died in 1581, leaving by will, but revoked by codicil, considerable legacies to Mrs. Critchlowe. William Critchlowe, gent., probably her son, was living at Lea in 1613. During the civil wars the residence of the Critchlowes was partially demolished, and was rebuilt by William Critchlow. In 1679 a clock was put up in the front of the house which struck the hour, and from that it became known as Clock House. The family lost its Faith towards the end of the eighteenth century, the last possessor of the estate being chiefly remarkable for his loose and profane language. James Critchley, son of William, the last of Lea, was captain in the Liverpool Light Horse, and died in 1873. All the family were distinguished for their size, being very tall and heavy men. Towards the close of the eighteenth century the estate was purchased by George Gillow, of Moor House, Newton-cum-Scales, gent., subsequently transferred to William Smith, of Wards House, Salwick, and Forton, gent., and finally sold by Joseph Gillow, Esq., J.P., after which its name was changed to Lea Lodge. A new house was erected slightly in front of the old one in Sidgreaves Lane, but the works and face of the ancient clock were still in position in the old one early in the last century.

* Thomas Charnley, of Durton in Broughton, chapman, son of Hugh Charnley, of the same, gent., a great benefactor to the chapel at Lady Well, Fernyhalgh, registered as a Catholic non-juror in 1717 an estate leased to his father by William Langton, of Broughton Tower, Esq. Thomas Charnley and his wife Grace were both buried on the same day at Broughton Oct. 3, 1723 (L.P.R.S. xlvi, 108). The Charnley residence subsequently became the seat of the famous school kept by Dame Alice Harrison in connection with the mission at Fernyhalgh, and in 1883 when the present writer visited it there remained in the barn attached to the present farm a long, narrow oak table, stoutly built and supported by six turned legs of great thickness, and carved in a panel in front over the centre legs are the initials and date—"H.C.—1629—A.C."—but the initials seemed of later carving than the date, the letters "H.C." and "A.C." corresponding with the date being over the side legs. They stand for Hugh Charnley and his wife "A," 1629, and their grandson Hugh and his wife "F." This table had been used in Dame Alice's school for more than half-a-century before she retired to the Gerards at Garswood about 1760, and it was covered with initials cut by the boys, amongst whom were many who subsequently became distinguished ecclesiastics, such as Alban Butler, the writer of the "Lives of the Saints," the Southworths, of whom Hugh was President of Sedgley Park, Hugh Kendal, John Daniel, the last President of Douay, John White, S.J., Charles Tootell, O.S.F., Dr. John Gillow, President of Ushaw, and many others. The Charnleys were intermarried with the Heskeths of White Hill and other good families. Hugh Charnley, the younger, of Durton, gent., by deed dated Mar. 16, 1685, conveyed the site of the well or spring at Fernyhalgh called Lady Well, part and parcell of the ancient chantry, his inheritance, to George Leyburne, of Nateby Hall, Esq., Nicholas Wadsworth, of Haighton Hall, Esq., Cuthbert Hesketh, of White Hill, Esq., the donor's son-in-law, and Robert Shepherd, of Broughton, gent., in trust for the secular mission at Fernyhalgh. The property conveyed adjoined the old chapel-house, to which a new chapel was added at this time and openly used. John Gerard, of The Holt, Brindle, who acquired about this time the estate at Haighton, near Fernyhalgh, subsequently known as Gerard Hall, was a great supporter of the chapel at Lady Well, and settled upon it in trust some £300 according to the evidence of Richard Hitchmough, the pervert priest and informer in 1716 (P.R.O. Forfeited Estates Papers, p. 134). The Rev. Peter Gooden (Gillow, Biog. Dict. Engl. Caths. ii, 424-8), the incumbent at Lady Well, was one of the witnesses to the Charnley conveyance, the others being John Daniel, of Durton, and Nicholas Glave (Gleave), of Broughton. This distinguished man resigned the chaplaincy at Leighton Hall about 1680, and had opened a sort of academy at Aldcliffe Hall, near Lancaster, the residence of the survivors of the seven Misses Dalton, better known as the "Catholic Virgins," but from the fact of his being at Lady Well at this time it would appear that owing to persecution he had removed to this secluded spot and joined his school with that long conducted at Lady Well, the Rev. Richard Sherburne alias Tunstall having recently been in charge. This good priest came to the English mission from Douay in 1625, and from the fact that many classical books still at Fernyhalgh bear his autograph with the scribbles of students between 1650 and 1695, it would seem almost certain that a Catholic school had secretly existed here for a great number of years during penal times. Amongst the autographs on the fly-leaves of the books—"In Usum Scholæ Sæ. Mariæ ad Fontem"—are "Samuell Hart his Bk., witness Christopher Horne April 29th 1651. Amen"; "Raufe Tyldesley" (in Prosodia, 1650), born in 1644, being the third son of General Sir Thomas Tyldesley; "John Tootell, his booke 1667"; "Nicholas Sandersonus, 1673," a member of an Alston family, of whom several were priests; "Thomas Goose his book 1685," and again in 1685. He was of an ancient family, and subsequently resided at Sturzaker House. His son and namesake was executed at Garstang Feb. 14, 1716, for taking part in the Rising of 1715, and his second son, John Goose, of Sturzaker House, gent., had a son Thomas residing in Over Wyresdale in 1746; "Thomas Lucas his book 1685," afterwards of Barniker, gent., married April 30, 1695, Martha, daughter of William Leckonby, of Elswick, gent.; "John Melling his book 1703," nephew of Rev. Christopher Tootell and brother of the Rev. Edward Melling, both of Lady Well, and son of Ralph Melling and his wife, Anne Tootell, was admitted into Douay College Dec. 26, 1708, was ordained priest, and died confessor to the English Augustinian nuns at Louvain May 10, 1745, in his 58th year and 32nd of his priesthood; "John Plesington, His Book 1713," probably a younger son of John Plesington, of Dimples Hall, near Garstang, gent., who with his eldest son Robert was attainted of high treason, committed Jan. 1, 1716, and had their estates forfeited causing the ruin of the family (Fishwick, Hist. of Garstang, ii, 232-6); "Richard Danyell His Booke 1694," and again in 1703, son of Edward Daniel and his wife Grace Carter, of Durton, who was admitted into the English College at Rome in Nov. 1704, aged seventeen and a half, and was ordained priest in 1710; "Jam. Parkinson," born Jan. 24, 1715-6, who subsequently was ordained priest at Douay College, and died at Crossbrook, Orrell, in 1766; "George Kendall 1717," born in 1698, went to Douay, became D.D., and at one time was stationed at Lady Well, where many of his books remain to this day, inscribed "George Kendall ejus Liber 1749," "Mr. Kendall His Booke 1749," "Mr. Kendall my master, 1749," etc. (vide Gillow, Biog. Dict. iv); "Rob. Ken.," another son of John Kendal, of Fulwood, four of whose sons—Richard, Henry, George, and Robert received their preliminary education at Lady Well, and were subsequently ordained priests at Douay, Robert, the youngest, born May 12, 1700, served Chipping Laund for some time, and finally died chaplain to Lord Molyneux at Croxteth April 19, 1746; "Edward Richardson, 1761," and in other books 1762-6-9 and 1771, very likely the apothecary of that name in Preston, who was buried at Broughton Feb. 12, 1788; "Richard Barr"; and many more, amongst whom were some showing that the school, as proved by the inscription, "In Usum Scholæ Sanctæ Mariæ ad fontem" appearing in a book printed in 1767, continued long after Dame Alice had retired to Garswood, latterly by Peter Newby (Biog. Dict. v, 163-4) who took Gerard Hall, Haighton, near Fernyhalgh, for that purpose in 1780, when the Gerard's removed for a time to Green Bank near Preston. Thus some books have—"Laurentius Teebay, 1780," and "James Teebay, 1789," sons of James Teebay, of Fulwood, from whose family came several well-known priests; "Nicholas Billington, 1787," of another local family fruitful in priests; and others, till Mr. Newby gave up his school in 1799. Subsequently a school for young ladies and very small boys was conducted by the Wilcocks at the old priest's house at Lady Well, which was continued by Miss Dora Browne (whose six brothers were priests), who married in 1858 Mr. William Greene, of Leeds, soon after which the school at Lady Well was given up. Meanwhile a rough list of the priests who succeeded Mr. Gooden at Lady

Well is as follows: Christopher Tootell, uncle of the Rev. Hugh Tootell, the author of the Church History under the pseudonym of "Charles Dod"; Edward Melling, another nephew; George Kendal, D.D., whose brother, the Rev. Henry, died at Lady Well in retirement and was buried at Broughton Nov. 1, 1752; John Cowban; John Chadwick; Robert Bannister; Anthony Lund, who built the new chapel in 1795 some little distance from Lady Well; Robert Blacoe; and Richard Gillow from 1823 till his death in 1864.

* John Daniel, of Durton within Broughton, gent., was tried for high treason at Preston in Sept. 1716, for taking part in the Rising of 1715, but acquitted (P.R.O., Forfeited Estates Papers, L. 4). As a Catholic non-juror he registered a fair estate in Durton. Three of his sons—Edward, William, and Thomas became priests as did other members of the family, including John Daniel, the last President of Douay College. Miss Elizabeth Daniel was buried at Broughton Dec. 3, 1741.

† Alexander Hudson, of Fishwick, linen-weaver, as a Catholic non-juror in 1717 registered a leasehold under William, Viscount Molyneux. His brother, Dom John Augustine Hudson, O.S.B., professed at Dieulward in 1686, was stationed at Flixton, co. Suffolk, from 1704 till his death Sept. 23, 1732. He was trustee for the Fishwick Hall Mission.

‡ Richard Johnson, of Lea, maltster, registered as a Catholic non-juror in 1717 a leasehold estate of 16 acres in Coppul, and died in 1740. William and Lawrence Johnson also registered estates at Lea, and to the latter William Haydock, of Cottam Hall, Esq., bequeathed by will in 1713 (proved 1717) a sum of £20 in trust for charitable purposes. The family were connected with the Helmes and other good local Catholics.

§ She was apparently the first wife of John Gorsuch, of Gorsuch Hall, Esq., who assumed the name of Eccleston upon succeeding to the Eccleston Hall estate in 1725. After her death Mr. Eccleston married secondly Wine-fred, daughter of Anthony Lowe, Esq., M.D., of Preston (q.v.), but died s.p. in Dec. 1742, when the Gorsuch and Eccleston estates passed to Basil Thomas Scarisbrick, of Scarisbrick Hall, Esq., who likewise assumed the name of Eccleston.

* Oswald Eyves, or Eaves as the name was latterly spelt, was son of Oswald Eyves, of Ashton-super-Ribble, younger son of Richard Eyves, of Fishwick Hall, Esq., by Jane, daughter of Nicholas Grimshaw, of Clayton Hall, Esq. The elder Oswald's will was proved in 1715, and his widow Elizabeth registered in 1717 her house and estate in Ashton held for life under her marriage settlement by her late husband, the trustees being William Haydock, of Cottam Hall, and Thomas Cooper, of Cuerden, both deceased. The elder Oswald's nephew, Dom Thomas Eyves, O.S.B., born in 1659, son of James Eyves, of Fishwick, gent., died at Dieulward April 29, 1747, and his sister, Dame Mary Eyves, O.S.B., died at Cambrai July 28, 1732. The younger Oswald was father to Dom Oswald Eyves, or Eaves, O.S.B., born in 1739 and professed at Dieulward in 1755, was at Cuerden 1764-80, and Brownedge 1780 till death Oct. 15, 1793, and his sister Anne, eventual heiress to the Eyves family upon his death, married John France, of Greaves Town in Ashton-super-Ribble, gent., the representative of a very ancient family from whom descended the frances of Little Eccleston Hall and Rawcliffe Hall, whose grandson and namesake, of Greaves Town, married Oct. 25, 1826, Mary, daughter of John Gillow, of Salwick Hall, gent. The Eyves family of Fishwick Hall always retained the Faith and suffered severely in consequence. They intermarried with many families of distinction as shown in the pedigree they returned at Dugdale's Visitation in 1664. Mass was very regularly said in the domestic chapel at Fishwick Hall from the reign of Elizabeth. It was reported to the privy council in 1586 that Sir Evan Banester, a Marian priest, of Preston, was being harboured by Mistress Jane Eyves. The family ceased to reside at Fishwick Hall towards the close of the 17th century.

† She was buried at Broughton Dec. 13, 1756 (L.P.R.S. xlviij, 127).

‡ She subsequently became Mrs. Graystoke. Her father farmed the site of Clifton old hall, then known as Hall-yards, held under lease from the Cliftons to his father Richard Gradwell, who died in Jan. 1706-7. Robert registered his estate as a Catholic non-juror in 1717, and was buried at Kirkham Mar. 24, 1746, leaving by his wife, Alice Holden, a son Richard, of Clifton, whose son John married Margaret, daughter and heiress of John Gregson, of Balderston. The Gradwells remotely descended from a younger son of the Gradells of Barbles More, a very ancient and honourable Catholic family.

† James Heatley was the eldest son of Hugh, of Brindle and Samesbury, and his wife, Anne Hutchinson.

‡ When the Jesuit mission was removed from Brindle in 1729, a chapel was opened in the house of Matthew Talbot at Slate Delph in Wheelton (vide C.R.S. iv, 434), who had been convicted of recusancy at Lancaster April 30, 1717. He was a relative of the Talbots who, like himself, settled in Preston, one of whom, William Talbot, subsequently purchased the manor of Wheelton.

John Caton's son Thomas became the priest at Cottam, and died Sept. 5, 1826, aged 72, and his daughter Mary was mother of the Rev. Thomas Lupton, of Manchester. * Mary Walmesley, widow of John Walmesley, and previously of John Taylor, of Park Hall in Quernmore, near Lancaster, as a Catholic non-juror in 1717 registered a farm in possession of her son, Richard Taylor, leasehold from the Hon. Hugh Clifford. Besides another son Thomas she had a daughter Winefrid, who married Robert Ball, of Scale Hall, and subsequently of Dolphin Lee, near Lancaster, an estate belonging to the Daltons of Thurnham. Quernmore was obtained by the Cliffords in marriage with the heiress of the Prestons of the Manor of Furness.

† She had formerly been housekeeper to the Rev. Christopher Tootell, of Lady Well, Fernyhalgh.

‡ Richard Gerard, of Gerard Hall, Haighton, was buried at Broughton June 3, 1747.

§ Postlethwaite, pronounced Postlewhite, and latterly so spelt, was the name of a very staunch Catholic family originally residing at Westby-cum-Plumpton, Richard Postlewhite, of Plumpton, married Anne Newsham, of Westby, and besides the daughter Anne mentioned in the text had four sons educated at Douay College, Rome, and Lisbon. James, born Dec. 11, 1723, was an assistant master to the Rev. Richard Kendal at the school at Standon Lordship for some time before it was transferred to Old Hall, now St. Edmund's College, after which he went to Clints Hall, co. York, where he died Feb. 8, 1781; John, born Aug. 20, 1727, ordained priest in 1752 or 1753, died at Hill Top House, Leyburn, co. York, Jan. 5, 1785; Henry, born July 28, 1729, who died at Douay Oct. 13, 1753; and Thomas Postlethwaite, born July 9, 1739, ordained priest at Lisbon Oct. 9, 1763, who died a professor in that College July 4, 1776. John Postlethwaite, of Westby, was a Catholic non-juror in 1717, his will being proved in 1726. Another member of the family married Anne, daughter and eventually coheir of Ralph fidler, of Sidgreaves Lane in Lea, by Jennet his wife, daughter of Robert Haydock, of Leach Hall, Woodplumpton, and had issue a son John Postlethwaite and a daughter Isabel.

* The Kighleys derived from a younger son of the Kighleys of White Lee in Goosnargh, in turn descended from the Keighleys, of Keighley Hall, co. York, and Inskip Hall in the Fylde, which estates passed in marriage with the daughter and heiress of Henry Keighley to William Cavendish, the first Earl of Devonshire. The Kighleys of White Lee were staunch recusants, and intermarried with leading county families. At the south end of the hall there was formerly a small Catholic chapel, which was removed about 1830. One of the gate-posts at the entrance to White Lee bore the inscription "H : K : M : 1694:" standing for Hugh and Mary Kighley, whose son, John Kighley, is said to have been involved in the Jacobite Rising of 1715. He was of Gray's Inn, London, and his son, Hugh Basil Kighley, of St. Andrew's in Holborn, surgeon, sold White Lee. Reverting to the text, Anthony Kighley was buried at Broughton Feb. 5, 1785. His son William was born April 7, 1744, and his children, Mary, William, and Anthony were respectively buried at Broughton in 1788, 1798, and 1800. The name of William Kighley appears in the list of obligations at Brindle under "Recommendations."

* Anthony Low, Esq., M.D., of Tabley Hill in the parish of Neston, co. Chester, married Elizabeth, daughter of Nathaniel Bostock, Esq., M.D., of Whixall, co. Salop, by Anne, daughter of John Stafford, of Bury, co. Suffolk, Esq. Subsequently he seems to have removed to Warrington, or was residing there when he was convicted of recusancy April 10, 1716, but in 1717 registered his estate as a Catholic non-juror describing himself as of Stabley Hill, and Squire Blundell, of Crosby Hall, in his diary (p. 195) speaks of dining with him at Hooton Hall on May 26, 1723. Finally he took up his residence in Preston. His daughter Winefred became the second wife of John Gorsuch-Eccleston, of Gorsuch Hall and Eccleston Hall, co. Lancaster, Esq., who died s.p. in 1742, when Mrs. Eccleston retired to Cowley Hill in Eccleston with the chaplain, Fr. Joseph Beaumont, S.J., who died at Cowley Hill Feb. 13, 1773, aged 71, and was buried at Windleshaw. Mrs. Eccleston was a very generous benefactor to the Jesuits of the district until her death at Cowley Hill June 15, 1793, aged 81, after being a widow for 51 years (Foley, Records S.J., v). Just before her death, to supply the loss of the mission at Eccleston in 1783, when the property passed to the Scarisbrick family, the pious widow established a mission at St. Helens, which was opened by her chaplain, Fr. Joseph Barrow, S.J., Sept. 1, 1793, and called Lowe House after its founder, and dedicated to St. Mary, and he continued to serve it till his death Jan. 5, 1813, aged 72, being buried near the altar of the chapel. Meanwhile, Fr. William Doyle, S.J., succeeded him at Cowley Hill, where he had 50 communicants when Bishop Matthew Gibson made his visitation in 1784, and confirmed 79 persons, but he died on the following Jan. 15, 1785, aged 67, and was buried in the neighbouring old Catholic cemetery of Windleshaw. After that the mission was taken over by the Benedictines, and Dom James Berry, O.S.B., took charge in 1786, but died on Nov. 4 in that year, after which the chapel at Cowley Hill ceased to be the seat of a mission. Dr. Anthony Low's brother, Charles Low, was lord of the manor of Gratton, co. Derby. The Lows were intermarried with the Eyres and other leading families (Payne, Records, p. 55).

* Dom Anselm Bernard Bradshaw, O.S.B., was at Little Mosna, Walton-le-Dale, 1740-1746.

† This confirmation was at Lady Well, Fernyhalgh, the Rev. George Kendal, D.D., V.G., having succeeded the Rev. Edward Melling to the charge of the mission.

‡ Fr. William Gillibrand, S.J., fifth son of Thomas Gillibrand, of Chorley Hall, subsequently known as Gillibrand Hall, Esq., by Alice, daughter of John Westby, of Upper Rawcliffe (or White) Hall, Esq., had been appointed to the old Brindle Jesuit Mission removed to Slate Delph in Wheelton in 1729, where he opened a boarding school, well attended by boys from Liverpool and other parts of Lancashire (C.R.S. iv, 434). Thence he removed about 1762-3 to Southworth Hall (C.R.S. xiii, 399), and finally succeeded his elder brother Thomas to the Gillibrand estates in 1776, took up his residence at Chorley Hall, and there died Mar. 22, 1779, aged 63.

§ Dom Thomas Simpson, O.S.B., of Cuerden.

¶ Fr. William John Tootell, O.S.F., of Lower Hall, Samlesbury.

¶¶ The bulls of Bishop Francis Petre appointing him to the Northern Vicariate are dated July 27, 1750, and are now at Ushaw College.

** Fr. Robert Painter, O.S.F., of Lower Hall, Samlesbury, to which he came in 1753 from White Hill in Goosnargh, a mission established by Cuthbert Hesketh, of White Hill, Esq., and placed in trust for the Franciscans in the names of Gabriel Hesketh, his nephew and heir, and Evan Gerard, of Gerard Hall in Haighton, gent. Fr. Painter died at Lower Hall Mar. 10, 1770.

†† Fr. John Richardson, S.J., succeeded Fr. William Gillibrand at Slate Delph in Dec., 1763. In 1767 the Bishop of Chester credited him in his report to the Government with a congregation of 295, and said that his residence was in Heapey-cum-Wheelton, in the parish of Leyland. He eventually gave up the boys' school established by his predecessor, and in 1773 removed to Ellingham, Northumberland, the seat of the Haggerstones, but died in Lancashire Mar. 27, 1782, aged 48.

* Edmund Eastham, of Walton-le-Dale, a Catholic non-juror in 1717, was son of Robert Eastham, of Walton, was baptised Nov. 20, 1671, and buried from Cuerdale Aug. 11, 1740. The Edmund of the text would be his grandson. Dom Evan Anselm Eastham, O.S.B., son of Evan Eastham, of Walton-le-Dale, yeoman, born May 16, 1703, was professed at Paris in 1731, and after ordination came to the mission in the north province, went from Whitehaven in 1750 or 1751 to Capheaton, Northumberland, the seat of Sir John Swinburne, Bart., till 1754, when he passed to the south province, and was placed at Coughton Hall, co. Warwick, the seat of Sir Robert Throckmorton, Bart., till 1758. Then he returned to the north province, to Low in Hindley, arisen out of the ancient chaplaincy of the Langtons of Low Hall, and during his incumbency he removed the mission to Strangeways in Hindley, where he remained till 1773. In that year he withdrew to his monastery at Paris, being replaced at Strangeways by Dom Edmund Duckett, O.S.B., who transferred the mission to Hindley in 1789. Dom Anselm finally retired to La Celle, where he died May 13, 1774, aged 71. Another member of the family, Bro. William Maurus Eastham, O.S.B., son of Evan Eastham, of Bamberbridge in Walton, born in 1774, was professed at Dieulward in 1794, and went with the community to Acton Burnell in Shropshire, but died at home at Bamberbridge Oct. 8, 1797 (Snow, Necrology, p. 129).

Upon the death of his cousin, Alexander Osbaldeston, in 1747, John Osbaldeston became heir to the entailed estates, but he is said to have surrendered his rights in the heavily mortgaged estates for £5,000 and an annuity of £400 to Sir George Warren, of Poynton, whose descendant, Lord de Tabley, sold Osbaldeston Hall and Manor in 1866 to Henry Ward, a wealthy cotton-spinner and manufacturer in Blackburn. Osbaldeston Hall, situated on the left bank of the Ribble, and intrenched with a moat, was a fine mansion, containing a banqueting hall and many handsomely panelled chambers with antique mantel-pieces and chimney-breasts covered with elaborate scroll carving, bearing the initials E: O: and M: O:, representing Sir Edward Osbaldeston and Maud, his wife, the daughter and coheirss of Sir Thomas Halsall, of Halsall and Selwick, who died respectively in 1590 and 1592. There are also inscriptions with dates and armorial bearings elsewhere on the buildings. The Osbaldestons intermarried with the oldest and leading families of the country and returned pedigrees at the visitations of 1587, 1613, and 1664. Fr. Francis à S. Magdalena Osbaldeston, O.S.F., son of Sir Edward Osbaldeston by Mary, daughter of Francis ffarington, of Hutton Grange, born very early in the seventeenth century, was approved for preaching and hearing confessions in 1648, suffered imprisonment during the Oates Plot in 1679, but escaped death and died at Douai in 1685 or 1686.

* He died on the following day, and the Low Hall estate passed to his nephew and heir-at-law, Edward Philip Pugh, Esq. Thus the ancient seat of the Langtons ceased to shelter a chaplaincy and finally passed out of Catholic possession.

* Edward Craven, of Leyland, and "Amey" [Emerentiana] Heys were married by licence at Walton parish church Oct. 27, 1770 (L.P.R.S. xxxvii, 438). The Cravens of Craven Fold in Dinkley and of Walton, Clayton, and district were of some antiquity. Dom Vincent Craven, O.S.B., professed at Dieulward in 1686, died there Dec. 9, 1704. He was no doubt one of the Cravens of Craven Fold in Dinkley and Elkar in Billington, of whom Abram gives a pedigree in his Hist. of Blackburn, p. 749, but is difficult to identify, as "Vincent" was probably his name in religion. It is most probable, however, that he was one of the sons of John Craven, of Elkar—Giles, Richard, Edward, or John, recusants temp. Charles II. Richard Craven, of Craven Fold, and his relative, Richard Craven, of Elkar in Billington, were Catholic non-jurors in 1717. Finally the family settled at Westwood House in Clayton Green, Dalton Lodge, and Whittle-le-Woods. John Craven went to Sedgley Park School in 1784, and in 1795 married Margaret, daughter of Jasper Gibson, attorney-at-law, of Hexham, eldest son of Jasper Gibson, of Stonecroft, Hexham. He died at Clayton Green May 28, 1852, aged 80. Two of his sons, Edward and Jasper, went to Sedgley Park in 1806, the former eventually dying at South Hill, Chorley, April 13, 1869, and the latter, after finishing his studies at Ushaw College, returned to Sedgley as a master, 1822–38, and died at the English College at Lisbon in Sept. 1862. A third son, William, born Feb. 27, 1799, went to Sedgley in 1811, and thence to Lisbon in 1814, but returned home in 1816. Another of the family, Giles Craven, died at Preston May 9, 1824; and Mrs. Emma Craven died at Dalton Lodge July 3, 1844, aged 39. John Arthur Craven, who went to Sedgley in 1857, entered the Bengal Provincial Service, was a magistrate, and died at Serampore Mar. 16, 1899, aged 54; and James Craven, of the East Indian Railway Service, died suddenly Dec. 10, 1902, aged 59. Another member of the family, John Craven, with his son-in-law, Nicholas Hayes, established the grocery firm of Hayes and Craven, in Preston, and in his latter years retired to Westwood House, Clayton Green, and became a justice of the peace, dying there Dec. 3, 1898, aged 75.

* The child was called after her aunt Emerentiana, wife of Edward Craven, of Walton. Emerentiana was a favourite family name. One of that name became the wife of James Foster, of Charnock Richard, tanner, and was mother of James Foster, born Feb. 14, 1746–7, who became an alumnus of Douay College in 1771. The surname was and is variously spelt—Heys and Hayes. The family settled at Wheelton and Whittle-le-Woods, and were connected with the Heatleys, from whom they derived property. Some of them were at Sedgley Park, Lisbon, Stonyhurst, Ampleforth, etc. In the middle of last century Nicholas Hayes was in partnership with his son-in-law, John Craven, of Westwood House, Clayton Green, as a grocer in Friargate, Preston, under the style of Hayes and Craven. He was the father of Fr. James, S.J.; of William, founder of the firm of Hayes and Finch, Ltd.; and of Nicholas, of Dalton Lodge, Whittle-le-Woods, three of whose sons joined the community at Ampleforth, Dom Wilfrid Bernard, born 1871, author of the Via Vita of St. Benedict (Cath. Who's Who, 1920), Dom Austin Benedict, and Dom Vincent Leo Hayes, O.S.B. Henry Heys, of Dalton Lodge, went to Sedgley in 1805. John Heys, of Gorse Hall, Whittle-le-Woods, died May 31, 1849, aged 55, and his widow Elizabeth Oct. 8, 1853, aged 34.

BOOK V.

This book, 9½ in. by 8 in. by 1½ in., bound in half-calf, contains some 500 pages, only the first 30 of which have been used.

pp. 1-11. Marriages, Sept. 28th, 1823—Apr. 13th, 1833.

p. 12 is blank.

pp. 13-30. Marriages, Apr. 24th, 1768—Apr. 13th, 1801.

Whilst the entries on pp. 1-11 are originals and are in the writing of Frs. Pope and Smith, those on pp. 13-30 are clearly but an incomplete copy of older records. The former will be found in chronological order, p. 279 infra.

* Alexander Carus, born at Liverpool in 1786, son of Richard Carus (probably from Halton) and his wife Elizabeth Wilson of Liverpool, came to Blackburn in 1800, and to Plessington in 1810. Their son John, born and baptized at Brindle 9 April 1811, died in 1880. He married in 1836 Catherine (born 1813, died 1890) daughter of William Machon, at St. Alban's, Blackburn. They were parents of our late member, Alderman Alexander Carus of Hoddesden Hall, Darwen, K.S.G., J.P., a man of many activities. The burial place of the family is still at Plessington. Some interesting particulars of the Carus family of Halton, by Mr. Joseph Gillow, appear in C.R.S. vi, 242-3.—J.S.H.

* Cf. note on Dom John Anselm Bolton supra p. 22. During his chaplaincy at Gilling Castle, 1764-93, he was presented by Lady Anne Fairfax with Ampleforth Lodge, which he handed over to his own Community of St. Lawrence, rendered homeless because of the French Revolution. The old Lodge still forms part of Ampleforth Abbey, and D. Anselm's memory is perpetuated in "Bolton Bank," a steep hill behind the Abbey.—J.E.S.

NOTES OF THE ROSARY CONFRATERNITY (p. 128).

When Mr. Joseph Gillow, our lamented Hon. Recorder, found himself obliged to abandon annotating the Brindle registers, he sent word by Mrs. Gillow that the English branch of the Confraternity of the Rosary was originally established at St. Gregory's, Douai, and afterwards set up in London by Dom Arthur Anselm Crowther, O.S.B., and Dom Thomas Vincent Faustus Sadler, O.S.B. (Dict. Engl. Caths. i, 603-5, and v, 463-6); that the Sodality Book is now at Downside Abbey; and that he had a copy of the sodales admitted at Douai.

It may be well to remind readers that the Very Rev. Bede Jarrett, Provincial, O.P., supplied a collection of lists of members of the Confraternity, which was printed in our Volume xiv, 204-236. Some of the names in this Volume appear more correctly, with more personal particulars, so that collation may well be made.

For instance, whilst in xiv, 220, we find "Laurence Maska" and "Elizabeth Maska." Here (p. 128) they appear as,—Lawrence and Elizabeth Myerscough of Myerscough, a married couple. This is an extreme case of mis-spelling, which can only have been conveyed by word of mouth to the headquarters of the Confraternity, the Dominican Superior, who authorised others to enroll members as sodales.—J.S.H.

No. II.

THE CATHOLIC REGISTERS OF ST. MARY'S, SAMLESBURY, LANCASHIRE, 1753-1837.

HISTORICAL NOTES BY DOM JOSEPH EDWARD SMITH, O.S.B.

Samlesbury, a rural township within the Parish of Blackburn, lies in Lower Ribblesdale, and extends from that river (which bounds it to the west, and also to the north for some distance) over undulating ground into the valley of the Darwen and upwards as far as Arley Brook in Woodford Park, a distance of three miles. From that point the eastern boundary extends over the slope of Hoolster Hill, the highest ground in the township, to the village of Mellor Brook. To the south the river Darwen and its tributary, the Beasting Brook, form the boundary until the hundred of Leyland is touched. Samlesbury covers an area of 4,379 acres. Needless to say, the Mission of this name, with whose history we are now concerned, must not be regarded as confined within such nicely defined boundaries as the above, which are civil and of comparatively modern date.

In the second half of the twelfth century, Gospatric, lord of Samlesbury, built a chapel dedicated to St. Leonard for the use of his dependents, on the site occupied to this day by what has now become the parish church, though it is no longer Catholic. A mere chapel-of-ease to Lawe (Walton), at that time a dependent of Blackburn, St. Leonard's had no burial ground of its own till some time between 1185-1191, when Gospatric induced two Irish bishops, his guests of the moment, to consecrate a cemetery for him, with the consent indeed of Henry, rector of Blackburn, but unknown to the Bishop of Lichfield in whose diocese the parish was then situated. Hugh de Nonant,* the local Ordinary, resenting this invasion of his rights, declared the consecration null; but, having had the local difficulties represented to him, he eventually gave way and allowed burial there (Whalley Coucher, Chet. Soc., i, 90). In 1238 John de Lacy made a grant (ib. 74), confirmed by the Bishop of Lichfield in 1239 and again in 1267 (ib. 70), conveying Samlesbury chapel together with the rectory of Blackburn, to Stanlaw Abbey, and after the removal of the Stanlaw community to Whalley in 1296 it continued to be served by the Cistercians until the dissolution of that Abbey in 1537. Traces of the monks may, perhaps, be discerned in "Monk's Lane," "pack and Prime (divine office) road" or "Egg (abstinence) road," by all of which names the lower lane from Samlesbury towards Whalley was still known in 1875, and which suggest the early stage of the return journey to the monastery after a "supply" at Samlesbury.

The history of religion at Samlesbury throughout the whole of this period is so intimately bound up with that of the lords of the manor, that some slight sketch of the ruling families must now be given.

Sir William de Samlesbury, grandson of Gospatric, had issue by his wife Avine, daughter and heir of William de Notton, three daughters, * Consecrated Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry in 1186, died March 27, 1199.

co-heirs: Cicely, Margery, and Elizabeth. Margery, though twice married, had no children, so that after her death, July 1267, the manor was divided between her two sisters.

Elizabeth married Robert de Holand, son and heir of Thurstan de Holand, and her moiety of the manor passed, like the other estates of the family, to the Lovels and was forfeited by Francis Viscount Lovel upon his attainer in 1485 after the battle of Bosworth Field. On 25 Feb. 1489 it was granted by Henry VII to Thomas, 1st Earl of Derby. This moiety would seem to have included the western portion of Samlesbury together with St. Leonard's chapel, which had been raided by the Scots in 1322, who included in their booty "2 vestments from the chapel, a chalice, missal and psalter" (Inq. ad q. d., Edw. II, No. 62; Cal. Close, 1323-7, p. 207). In 1464 the tithes of St. Leonard's had been granted to Whalley, and Richard Holden, who was Abbot 1471-80, found it necessary to insist upon his rights in this respect (Croston, Samlesbury Old Hall, 1871). After the Suppression the King's surveyor of Whalley Abbey estates in 1538 valued "the chappell of Samlesbury with ye tyeth belonging to ye same by ye year" at £12 8s. 1d. Queen Mary's commissioners in 1553 found, surviving the spoliation under Edward VI, "one little bell, weighing fourscore pounds," and computed its value at 10 shillings. It is probably this which Hewitson saw in 1871, hung in a grated box at the west end of the church and known by the country people as "the Catholic bell" (Our Country Churches and Chapels, p. 123). Following the suppression of Catholic worship in 1537, St. Leonard's fell into disuse and decay, so much so that the lord of the manor became concerned for its safety and issued the following appeal: "13 May, 1558, Edward [3rd] Earl of Derby, to al his louing frendes. As I am credible informed the church at Sambery is in ruine and endangeringe people that resort to heare God's worde, I have thought good to move my louing frendes to help with ther charity towards the re-edifying therof" (Notitia Cestr., Chet. Soc., ii, 293n). The restoration of the chapel, including the addition of two aisles and an elevation of the nave, would seem to have been the result of this appeal, and thenceforward it has secured State support as part of the "Church by law established." The font, which remains to this day, probably dates back to Gospatric's original foundation. In July, 1600, William, Earl of Derby, passed his half of the manor of Samlesbury by fine to trustees, by whom it was conveyed about 1606 to Thomas Walmsley, of Dunkenhalgh, Knt., Justice of the Common Pleas. From him it descended with the other family estates until in 1852 it was left to the father of its present owner, Oswald Henry Turville-Petre, Esq.

Having thus traced the descent of the one moiety, let us revert to the partition of the manor in order to follow the vicissitudes of Catholicism at Samlesbury through the penal times, so closely linked with the history of the other moiety, which fell to—

Cicely, daughter and coheirress with her sister Elizabeth de Holand, of Sir William de Samlesbury, grandson of Gospatric. By her marriage (before 13 Apr. 1259) with John Deuyas (D'Ewas, D'Evyas), son of Nicholas Deuyas by his wife Alice, daughter of Jordan Foliot, her portion of the Samlesbury manor, together with estates in Riseholme, co. Lincoln, eventually descended to her granddaughter and sole heiress, Alice, and to her issue by Gilbert, son and heir of Gilbert de Sotheworth, lord of Sotheworth and Croft, in Winwick parish, to whom she had been married before 8 July 1325. Thus commenced the historic connection of the Southworth family with Samlesbury, fully dealt with by Croston in his Samlesbury Old Hall (London, Chiswick Press, 1871). To do more than trace their influence on the Mission would be beyond the scope of the present article.

Sir Thomas de Southworth, grandson of Sir Gilbert and Alice Deuyas, succeeded, in 1416 at the age of 23, to his father, Sir John, who had married Margaret, daughter of Sir Richard de Hoghton, Knt. He married Johan, daughter of Sir John de Bothe of Barton, and held the family estates till his death Apr. 27, 1432. A licence was granted about 1420 by the Bishop of Lichfield to Sir Thomas and Johan his wife, to have mass celebrated in their mansions of "Sothelworth and Samlesbury" (Lib. ix, fol. 3, Cur. Lichf.).

The Old Hall, Samlesbury, had been rebuilt and used as manor house by his grandfather, Sir Gilbert, who was living in 1363, and this grant of a private oratory may account in some measure for the decline of the neighbouring chapel of St. Leonard, referred to above. His son Gilbert was at Agincourt, 1415; and Sir John Southworth, great-grandson and eventual heir of Sir Thomas and Johan, was at Flodden Field, May 1513, and, dying in 1517, the estates passed to his son Thomas, by his wife Helen, daughter of Sir Richard Langton, baron of Newton. Thomas was knighted in 1523, restored the west wing of the Old Hall in 1532, and rebuilt the south part in 1545. He served as Sheriff of Lancaster 1541-2, and, dying 13 Jan. 1546, was succeeded by his son John, the child of his second wife Margery, daughter of Thomas Butler (or Boteler) of Bewsey, Knt.

This Sir John Southworth, who was 20 years old at his father's death, was perhaps the most noteworthy scion of this distinguished family. He married, 23 July 1547, at St. Leonard's, co. Middlesex, Mary daughter of Sir Richard Assheton of Middleton, Knt., and had issue sons: Thomas; Richard; Michael; Gilbert, a lawyer of some standing; Leonard; John and Christopher—the two latter of whom were priests (C.R.S. vi, 158); and daughters: Anne, wife of Robert Singleton, gent.; Jane, married . . . . Stanley; Mary, wife of George Talbot; and Margaret, wife of Bartholomew Hesketh, gent. The father, John Southworth, received knighthood in Scotland in 1547, and in 1557 so distinguished himself in military service in the north that a second hundred men was added to his command. He was High Sheriff of the county in 1562 after the accession of Elizabeth, but, if his patriotism was above suspicion, he proved himself no less staunch a champion of the ancient faith, and consequently fell foul of the civil authorities. On 1 Nov. 1568 William Downham, Bishop of Chester, reported Sir John to Secretary Cecil "for not repairing to Church, nor receiving the sacrament, and for speaking against the Book of Common Prayer." He had also refused to sign a form of submission, promising inter alia to "obey all Her Majesty's Authority in all matters of Religion and Orders Ecclesiastical . . . ." In Feb. 1575-6 the Bishop of Chester reported to the Privy Council as "obstinate recusants in the Blagburne Parish . . . . John Sothworth, knight and ladie his wife. Thomas Sothworth, his sonne and heir. John Sothworth, gent. sonne to John Sothworth, Kt. Ann Sothworth, his daughter; Dorothis Sothworth, his sister." In 1577 Sir John, his wife and his heir are again reported "recusant" (C.R.S. xxii, 69), and in 1581 this steadfast confessor was arrested and committed to the New Fleet, Manchester, for harbouring at Samlesbury the Ven. Edmund Campion, S.J. In this prison he remained with a certain amount of liberty to take exercise until 1584, when he was summoned to reside in the metropolis as being less dangerous there than in the county where he was "greatly allied and befriended" (Abram, History of Blackburn, 77-81). In a report dated 10 Sept. 1586 and covering the period 1580-6, his son Thomas was reported for harbouring "James Cowper, a seminarie priest at the lodge in Samlesbury Park whither many of the family, servants and friends resorted to hear Mass." The same document (Harleian MSS., ff. 32b and 33) mentions "one Duckson, an old priest," as resident in Samlesbury, and that "at the house of James Sherples . . . . was a Masse done on Candlemas day by one Harry Duckesson, alias Dueson"; also that "at the Lodge in Samlesburie Park, there be masses daily and Seminarie [seminarists] diverse resort thither, as James Cowpe, Harrisson,* Bell, and such like."

This would be James Bell, born ca. 1524 at Warrington, Lancs., who was educated at Oxford and ordained priest during the reign of Queen Mary. A severe illness coupled with the remonstrances of a Catholic matron were the means under God of reclaiming him in 1581 from apostacy, when, after some months devoted to penitential exercises, he resumed his priestly functions, labouring for souls with exemplary diligence for the space of about two years. On 17 Jan. 1584 he was apprehended, very probably in the act of saying mass, and brought before the Earl of Derby, to whom he acknowledged himself to be a priest, and confessed his reconciliation to the Catholic Church after having for a long time gone astray. At the Manchester Sessions, held 22 and 23 of the same month, he was condemned for saying mass in Golborn, near Wigan. From Salford gaol he was removed to Lancaster to be tried at the Lent Assizes, and during the journey, a distance of 60 miles by road, his arms were tied behind him and his legs under the horse's belly.

He was arraigned, together with others, under the Act of Supremacy, and at his trial displayed great courage and resolution, boldly professing that he had been reconciled to the Church and that he did not acknowledge the Queen's ecclesiastical supremacy, but that of the Pope. Upon hearing the sentence of death Fr. Bell evinced great satisfaction, and, looking at the Judge, said: "I beg your Lordship would add to the sentence that my lips and the tips of my fingers may be cut off, for having sworn and subscribed to the articles of heretics, contrary to my conscience and to God's truth." He spent the following night in prayer and meditation, and suffered on the ensuing day, 20 Apr. 1584, not only with constancy, but with great joy, being then 60 years of age (Gillow, Dict. Biog. i, 173-4).

Sir John Southworth died 3 Nov. 1595, leaving his son Thomas successor to the family estates, then more or less encumbered as the result of many years of bitter persecution. In 1605, Thomas settled the Lower Hall, Samlesbury, probably then but recently erected, on his son John, who married Jane, natural daughter of Sir Richard Shireburn of Stonyhurst, Knt. John predeceased his father, leaving as heir his son Thomas, who succeeded to the Old Hall in 1597, whilst his mother, who would appear, from the affair of the "Samlesbury witches" tried at Lancaster, 1612 (Abram, History of Blackburn, 88-95), to have turned Protestant, resided at the Lower Hall which she had for jointure during her lifetime. To a junior branch of this family doubtless belonged the Ven. John Southworth, priest, born 1592. As a prisoner in Lancaster Castle he absolved Ven. Edmund Arrowsmith, S.J., on his way to martyrdom there 28 Aug. 1628, and after long detention in various gaols, himself won the martyr's crown at Tyburn 28 June 1654 (C.R.S. vi, 158). In 1668 there were 30 recusants at Samlesbury (C.R.S. ib.), including * Probably Fr. James Harrison—cf. C.R.S. v, 162-5.

Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Langton of Low, wife of the John Southworth who had succeeded to the estates in 1641 owing to the extinction of his elder brother Thomas' line of succession. This Thomas, who died in 1623, had sold the Lower Hall to Thomas Walmsley of Dunkenhalth, Knt., whose father had acquired the Earl of Derby's moiety of the manor some years earlier, as related above.

John would appear to have been a man of no very strong convictions, religious or political. The absence of his name from the recusant rolls of 1668, where that of his wife appears, may indicate compliance with the custom, far too common in those evil days, whereby the husband conformed occasionally with the statutory worship in order to escape conviction for recusancy and the consequent fines and disabilities, trusting to a deathbed repentance. Be that as it may, his lack of political zeal during the Commonwealth regime involved him in further difficulties, and he only avoided sequestration of his estates by paying a fine of £359 (Vict. Hist. of Lancs. vi, 301). Dying early in 1676 he was succeeded by his third but eldest surviving son Edward, who on 10 Mar. 1679 finally sold the manor, together with the Old Hall, to Thomas Bradyll of Portfield, Brockhall and Conishead Priory, Esq., for £3,150. He died at Balderston in 1694. The subsequent history of the Southworth family will be found above in the note on p. 89.

The ancient chapel, first licensed for service about 1620, is now the morning room and lies in the north-east wing of this historic mansion. In former days its altitude equalled that of the building itself. It is lighted by three windows, that in the south side being Gothic in design and of four lights with tracery heads, cinquefoiled and subarcuated; it is believed to have been transported hither from Our Lady's chapel, Whalley Abbey, at the Dissolution (Abram, 664). An ancient piscina of uncertain date still bears witness to the former character and purpose of this apartment. The names of priests known to have found shelter at the Old Hall have been given above.

The Lower Hall, Samlesbury,—

overlooking the Ribble, and now little more than a ruin, is situated at a distance of about three-quarters of a mile to the north-east of St. Leonard's Chapel. As has already been said, it was sold about 1620 by Thomas Southworth, great-grandson of that stout confessor, Sir John Southworth, to Thomas Walmsley, of Dunkenhalth, Knt., Justice of the Court of Common Pleas. His wife Juliana in 1655 gave a property, Mount Grace, at Osmotherley, near Northallerton, co. York, to the Franciscans as a missionary residence (Oliver, Coll., p. 559), and it would seem to have been through these same Walmsleys that St. Chad's chapel in the rear of the Lower Hall was also entrusted to the sons of St. Francis, who continued to serve the mission throughout the troubled penal times until early in 1817, when a new church, dedicated to St. Mary, was built, half-a-mile from and overlooking St. Leonard's, to replace the now dilapidated chapel at the Lower Hall. St. Mary's was opened in 1818 under the care of Fr. John Bell, the first Secular rector of Samlesbury, and since that date the mission has been served by the Secular Clergy of the diocese of Salford, as noted below.

During penal days, when it was high treason to be or to harbour a priest, circumstances rendered imperative a secrecy, as perfect as possible then, and so almost impenetrable now; and forbade, moreover, anything like a permanent address for either chapel or priest. Lower Hall, from its proximity to the river, was conveniently situated as a base for priests, and traces of the altar, the hiding-place and the look-out holes in the vestry were still discernible in 1871.

Brockholes also, across the water, was similarly equipped, and tradition has it that on one occasion the hunted priest swam the Ribble in his vestments. Bessa Wood, too, is known to have provided cover for the celebration of the holy sacrifice, probably about 1745; and at Balderstone, two miles to the east of Lower Hall, may still be seen what is known as the "Priest's Well."

But scanty information is available concerning the early chaplains at the Lower Hall. Fr. Michael Howarden, O.S.F., commissioned by his Chapter held at Douai, 28 Sept. 1689, to preach and hear confessions, was here in 1690, and Bishop James Smith, writing in 1703, refers to him as being still its incumbent. A letter written by Rev. John Holme, the Protestant vicar of Blackburn under date 3 Nov. 1709, is interesting for the light which it throws on the state of Catholicism in the district at this time. He reports to his Primate the holding of episcopal Visitations of the Lower Hall mission by Bishop James Smith in 1704, and again on July 8, 9, and 10th, 1709, which last day being a Sunday, crowds flocked to hear his lordship preach and to receive Confirmation. "Mr. Hall, my curate at Samlesbury chapel, tells me that he saw multitudes goe that way past his house, some on foot, some on horseback, most of them with little children under their arms . . . . . The neighbouring Protestants seemed to take little notice of the matter, it being no novelty with them . . . . ." In conclusion the vicar deplores his inability to interfere: "'tis dangerous meddling with the papists here, where they bear all down by their power and Interest" (Abram, op. cit., 82). In the list of non-jurors of 1717* the following names appear from Samlesbury: Robert Brindle, James and Mary Turner, Hugh Walmesley, Thomas High, Wm. Moulden, Anne Cocker, Anne Hoole, Hugh Heatley, and Richard Abbot, of Lower Hall, where Mass was said (cf. note on p. 100 supra). Fr. Howarden remained here until he was appointed Vicar of Douai in 1717. Eventually he returned to the mission, this time in the south of England, where he died 29 Aug. 1738, "aet. 73: Relig. 57: sacerdos 49: Jub. 7" (Thaddeus, Taunton MS.).

From the Brindle Registers (supra, p. 98) we learn that Fr. Richard Collingridge, O.S.F. (probably of the same family as R.R. Peter Bernardine Collingridge, † O.S.F., V.A.-W.D.), died at Lower Hall 25 Feb. 1732; and also that at a Confirmation held by Bp. Edward Dicconson, V.A.-N.D., at Brindle in June, 1749, the Samlesbury candidates were presented by Fr. William Tootell, O.S.F. Probably "William" represents the baptismal name of Fr. John Evangelist Tootell, who died at Douai in 13 Dec. 1758, "aet. 81: relig. 62: sac. 56" (Taunton MS.). The death of Fr. Charles Tootell, the only other Franciscan of that name in those times, is recorded in the Anniversary lists as occurring on 2 Oct. 1771 (cf. infra, p. 335).

From 4 Jan. 1753, the commencement of the existing registers, we are able to reconstruct fairly accurately the series of pastors who compiled them. From that date until 21 Jan. 1770 all the entries are in the handwriting of Fr. Robert Painter, O.S.F., who came to Lower Hall in 1753 from the neighbouring Franciscan mission of White Hill, in Goosnargh, which had been entrusted to his charge 15 Oct. 1753 (cf. note, p. 139 supra). During his rectorship of nearly sixteen years the number of Easter confessions rose from 93 to 234, and he presented for confirmation at Brindle batches of 27, 50, and again 50 candidates in 1755, 1760, and 1766 respectively (supra, p. 139). The registers reveal the zealous missionary as well as the practical man of method, while tradition has it that he employed his leisure in making weather-glasses which he gave to his friends. The Samlesbury anniversary table places his death on the 8th, but the Brindle register on the 10th of March, 1770.

Of his successor, Fr. Alexius Whalley, O.S.F., little is known save that for fifteen years he maintained Fr. Painter's good traditions until his removal, which occurred, as he had so confidently expected,* shortly before Christmas, 1785. He died at Osmotherley 21 July 1811 (C.R.S. xii, 111).

From 13 Oct. 1785 till 14 Oct. 1792, Fr. Richard Angelus Ravenhill, O.S.F., was in charge of the mission. He died 22 Oct. 1792, and, like several of his successors, his remains were interred in the Samlesbury Protestant church, where the Southworth and Gregson families still retained pew rights.

Fr. Edward Andrew Weetman, O.S.F., the next pastor, was born at Rowington, co. Warwick, on 2 May 1765, and was sent from St. Bonaventure's Friary, Douai, to Lower Hall as his first mission early in 1793. He left five years later, and was successively employed at Wootton-Wawen, co. Warwick; Perthyre, co. Monmouth; and Britwell, Oxon. He filled at different times the responsible offices of Guardian of Douai, President of Hereford and Definitor of the Province, and in 1812 was transferred to Taunton Lodge where "for 31 years, his career was marked with every virtue, especially for a quiet meek spirit, so rich in the sight of God. This beloved of God and man calmly expired on Sunday, 15 Jan. 1843, and was buried in the conventual cemetery" (Oliver, Coll., p. 433).

Meanwhile, his place at Samlesbury had been taken by Fr. William Ignatius Casemore, O.S.F., who was born at Reading 13 Sept. 1751, and after making his first studies amongst the Jesuits, finally embraced the Rule of St. Francis. He served Lower Hall from July 1798 till Nov. 1802, with the exception of a short interval in the autumn of 1801. In Jan. 1805 he was sent by Bishop Sharrock, V.A.-W.D., to whom he had offered his services, to Falmouth as its first incumbent. Here he continued for 13½ years, when declining health occasioned his retirement to the Convent of Poor Clares at Coxside, Plymouth, where he died 29 Sept. 1824, and was buried in their cemetery (Oliver, Coll., p. 261).

In the autumn of 1801 the Lower Hall mission was the scene of the last labours of another distinguished Franciscan, Fr. William Leo Pilling, younger brother of John Bonaventure Pilling, O.S.F. (who died at Osmotherley, Yorks., 12 Jan. 1800, aet. 66; rel. 49). Born in Lancashire in 1741, William took the habit at Douai, where he taught philosophy 1770-6, and theology 1776-82. He was ordained priest in 1773. A well-read scholar, a clear headed theologian and an exemplary missionary, he was successively entrusted with the responsible offices of Guardian of Canterbury in 1784, President of Hereford 1785-7, Guardian of Oxford, Definitor and Procurator of the Province, and after presiding over the College conducted by his Order at Edgbaston, finally retired in 1801 to Lower Hall. At an age when most men look to enjoy a well-earned leisure, this indefatigable missionary is found teaching in the day school attached to the mission, until he fell the victim of an apoplectic stroke, and departed to his reward on the 4th of Dec. 1801, in the 60th year of his age.

Of Fr. John Waring, O.S.F., who replaced Fr. Casemore in 1802, little is known save that he laboured here for the next 13 years till his death on 1 July 1816, when he was buried alongside Fr. Pilling in Gregson's or Cowpe's pew in St. Leonard's Church, Samlesbury. He was the last Franciscan to serve this mission, but in Aug. 1816, shortly after his death, we find acting as locum tenens,—

Fr. John Bernardine Davison, O.S.F., from the neighbouring mission of Lee House, near Stonyhurst. He was born at Catterick, co. York, 27 Feb. 1791, and this must have been his first mission. From it he was transferred shortly after and appointed to be chaplain to the Poor Clares at Plymouth. Here he continued for about four years, until in Aug. 1820 he was reinstated at Lee House; and when that mission was given up by his Order to the Bishop of the Northern District, he retired to Osmotherley, a retreat for superannuated members of his Province. Understanding that Rev. Edward Metcalf, the incumbent of Newport, required additional aid in the arduous duties of his mission, he volunteered and commenced on 14 Oct. 1842 his zealous labours which were to bring to a fitting close a life devoted to humble work for souls. In a letter dated 2 Feb. 1842, his bishop writes thus to Dr. Oliver: "I am greatly distressed by the death, about 4-30 a.m. yesterday, of Fr. John Bernardine Davison, at Newport, at the age of 51. He caught typhus fever from visiting the sick, and is gone, I trust, to receive the crown of a martyr of charity" (Oliver, Coll., 284).

In Nov. 1816 we find Dom John Turner, O.S.B., supplying at the Lower Hall. He was born at Woolston, Lancs., 3 Aug. 1765. He was professed at Douai, 8 Sept. 1786, for St. Edmund's, and ordained at the outbreak of the Revolution, 1790. He remained some time in Paris after being released from prison, but eventually found his way to the English Mission in the North Province. After a year at Croston, Lancs., 1814, he remained at Holme Hall till his retirement in 1843 to St. Lawrence's, Ampleforth, where he died July 13th in the following year.

The year 1818 marks a new era in the story of Samlesbury mission. Early in that year the new church, St. Mary's, which reckoned Squire (William) Heatley of Brindle amongst its chief benefactors, was opened under the care of its first Secular rector, Fr. John Bell. Born at Snaith, co. Yorks., in 1767, he was in his second year's theology at Douai when the College was seized by the Revolutionists. Effecting his escape, he became in April, 1793, tutor to the sons of John Silvertop of Minster Acres, Esq. When the Douai refugees had established themselves at Crook Hall, co. Durham, Fr. Bell rejoined them on 7 Nov. 1794, and was followed by Henry Silvertop, one of his pupils. He served on the College Staff, as Professor of Rhetoric and Poetry besides acting as Prefect General, from his ordination 23 Dec. 1794, through the transfer of the establishment to Ushaw, 1808, down to 1817, when he left the College and devoted his talents to missionary labours at Samlesbury till April 1828, being then removed to Kippax Park, co. Yorks. Eventually he retired to Selby, where he died at the advanced age of 87, 31 May 1854 (Gillow, Dict. Biog. i).

Fr. William Carter, the new incumbent, was the son of John Carter of Little Poulton Hall, co. Lancs., by his first wife, Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of Henry Atkinson of Poulton. Educated and ordained at Ushaw, he succeeded Fr. Bell at Samlesbury in April 1828. The mission was then nearing its zenith, but after 1834, when Fr. Carter registered his Easter confessions at 460, various causes contributed to its gradual decline. In 1837 Osbaldeston chapel had been opened, having for its first rector Rev. J. A. Corless, D.D., whose widowed mother became the second wife of the John Carter above mentioned. This new mission drew off nearly half the congregation, and by 1847, when Fr. Carter was removed to the newly-built church of St. Joseph, Liverpool, the "Paschal penitents" numbered but 286. He died aged 51, 13 July 1853, on a visit to Samlesbury, and a handsome monument has been erected to his memory in St. Mary's churchyard, while his remains lie buried before the High Altar of this church which he served so long.

Samlesbury's next pastor was Fr. William Fayer, born in the Fylde in 1802 and educated at Ushaw. He first served Sunnyside, near Burnley, whence he was moved in 1842 to St. Anthony's, Scotland Road, Liverpool. From St. Patrick's, Liverpool, whither he had been transferred the next year, he came to Samlesbury on 14 Oct. 1847, and here for 28 years he maintained an uphill struggle against a gradual but constant diminution of his flock, a feature not uncommon in the history of country parishes, and a consequence of the concentration of the more abundant means of livelihood in the industrial towns. Thrice during his rectorship was the Rocher Factory, which provided employment for many parishioners, burnt down, and in 1873 he records great mortality amongst the children from malignant scarlet fever. The decline, however, was, as Fr. Fayer's notes show, one in "temporals," not in "spirituals." In 1868 when his flock was reduced to 139, only two were "out of the church," and in 1872 but three out of 123, and these were strangers. In 1874 the total population of the parish, which in 1821 had been 1,979, had fallen to 600, of whom 116 were Catholic. In Jan. 1875 Fr. Fayer retired to Kirkham where he died 17 Sept. 1883, aged 81. Hewitson, writing in 1872, has left a pleasing and interesting account of the impressions he received on a visit to Fr. Fayer: "He looks hale, homely, plump and fatherly; is kindly, careful, exact in his habits, and plain in speech; has a regard for antiquities—for old stones and old coins, and anything of a genealogical or historical character; for farming, physic, and Roman bricks; for music, cow draughts and divinity; is a very sociable gentleman and full of anecdote." Indeed it is to this bent of the good priest for research, which led him to analyse the mission registers and to record his findings and surmises in pencil jottings therein, that the present writer is indebted for much that has greatly facilitated the preparation of this sketch. Hewitson, usually more lavish of blame than praise, concludes thus: "He is a cheerful and unassuming priest—earnest in his duties, lively in his leisure moments, and generous towards the poor and the distressed. The school connected with the mission is attended by about 25 children on weekdays, and 50 on Sundays, and the bulk of the scholars know music, whilst all of them can sing!" (Country Churches and Chapels, p. 127).

A new school at Sowerbutts Green, Samlesbury, erected by the subscriptions of the local Catholics (prominent amongst whom was Mr. Robert Hubberstey, who advanced the necessary funds as a loan without interest and superintended the building operations), was opened in 1875, and on Sept. 1 of that year Fr. Richard Gerrard took over the rectorship of the mission. He served St. Mary's, Mulberry Street, Manchester, from 1863 until 1870, when he was removed to Ashton-under-Lyne. Next year he is found at Radcliffe, near Bury, whence he came to Samlesbury as mentioned above. He succeeded, despite hard times and a dwindling population, in freeing the new school from debt before leaving Samlesbury, 30 June 1901. He died at Blackburn 26 Dec. 1901.

Since July 1901 Samlesbury has been under the care of its present Parish Priest, R.R. Mgr. William Hill, who was educated at Ushaw and ordained at Salford Cathedral 9 Sept. 1877. After two years at St. Bede's, Manchester, he was appointed Secretary to the Bishop of Salford, a post which he retained for some 22 years, first under Bishop (afterwards Cardinal) Vaughan, and then under his successor Bishop Bilborrow, until he replaced Fr. Gerrard at Samlesbury, July 1st 1901. In recognition of his valuable services he was appointed in 1897 Privy Chamberlain to the Pope, and in 1906 Domestic Prelate to His Holiness.

Among Samlesbury's treasured relics, now preserved in the museum at St. Bede's, Manchester, are an ancient pyx of silver gilt, beautifully engraved, and bearing this, amongst other inscriptions: "For the use of the Rev. Father A. from the gift of S.B. 1689"; and a chasuble, probably some 600 years old, richly worked in gold, silver, silk and velvet.—J.E.S.

BOOK I.

The first part of the old registers is bound into the centre of a blank volume, about 8½ in. by 6½ in. in size, cloth bound, purple backs, red edges. After 46 pages, meant for notes, only 15 of which have been used, comes the Register of 78 pages, followed by another 44 blank pages.

* Rather a table of anniversaries than a record of deaths. Each month has a page, and each day a line to itself. The indices (inserted by editor) after the names refer to the priest in whose handwriting they have been entered, and these, taken in conjunction with the list below, may serve as some indication of the year of death. In order to save space vacant dates have been omitted.

he retired to Lancaster and lived with his sister Ellen, widow of Henry Clarkson and mother of Rev. Richard Clarkson (b. 1851; d. 1891), until his death there 18 Feb. 1904, aged 83. He lies buried in St. Peter's Cemetery, Lancaster, at the porch of which stands a tablet recording the foundation by Fr. Abbot of four annual masses for all interred therein. He was a most zealous priest and indefatigable student, with a special taste for historical research. Among his papers is a MS. history of the portable altar, a relic of penal times and used by Ven. Edmund Arrowsmith, S.J., which he inherited through the Burgess family, and which is now in the possession of his nephew, Mr. Thomas Clarkson, of Bolton-le-Sands (cf. pp. 50 and 106 supra, and C.R.S. xiii, 14).

By request of Major Trappes-Lomax, the following Corrigenda in volume xxii are noted :—

p. 223. There is no evidence that Sir Francis Trappes "temporized." The mere negative that he is not mentioned as a recusant in the list for 1604, may have other explanations. The family preserves several of his discharges from recusant rent.

p. 241, for Note 1 read—Nidd Hall was sold in 1825. The second son of Francis Trappes, i.e. Robert, settled at Clitheroe, Lancs. In 1886 Helen wife of Thomas Byrmand Trappes (the son of Robert of Clitheroe) inherited an undivided moiety of the Lomax settled estates, her niece Mrs. David Howell (née Segar), late of Rosehill, Penzance, inheriting the other moiety. Mrs. Trappes since then has resided by arrangement at Clayton Hall; and having inherited the unsettled estates in 1891, she took the name of Trappes-Lomax. Her husband, the above-mentioned Thomas B. Trappes, being then already dead, never bore the name Trappes-Lomax, as the index mistakenly states.

THE SIXTEENTH REPORT OF THE
Catholic Record
Society

PRESENTED TO THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING AT ARCHBISHOP'S HOUSE, WESTMINSTER,

on

TUESDAY, JULY 20, 1920

Together with the Roll of Members, the Constitutions, &c.

Constitutions

1. Name. The name of the Society is "THE CATHOLIC RECORD SOCIETY."

2. Objects. The objects are the transcribing, printing, indexing, and distributing to its members the Catholic Registers of Baptisms, Marriages and Deaths, and other old Records of the Faith, chiefly personal and genealogical, since the Reformation in England and Wales.

3. Management. The affairs of the Society are managed by a Council consisting of twelve members and four honorary officers, viz., The Recorder, Bursar, Legal Adviser and Secretary—four forming a quorum. It has power to appoint a President and Vice-Presidents, its Chairman and Officers, and to fill vacancies on its own body, and has power to refuse or take away membership. One-third of the twelve members and all the honorary officers retire each year, but are eligible for re-election. Nominations of New Members of the Council must be sent to the Secretary fourteen days before the Annual Meeting. The representation and management are reserved to Catholic Members.

4. Subscription. The subscription is one guinea per annum commencing June 1st, which entitles members to any publications issued during the year.

No volume will be issued to any member whose subscription is unpaid, and the names of any members whose subscription shall be two years in arrear will thereupon be removed from the Society, and not be readmitted until all arrears are paid. A member wishing to retire from the Society must intimate his intention to the Bursar or the Secretary, before the 1st day of June, or be held liable for his subscription for the ensuing year.

Personal Life-Membership may be obtained on payment of twenty guineas in advance. Members who have paid subscriptions for ten consecutive years and who are not in arrear may obtain the same privilege on payment of ten guineas. All life subscriptions are to be capitalized.

5. Back Numbers. Members may, on prepayment, obtain back numbers (if in stock) on such terms as the Council may direct.

6. Meetings. An Annual Meeting is held in the month of June or July, of which at least seven days' notice is sent to all the members. At this meeting a report of the work of the Society, with a statement of the income and expenditure, is presented. This is issued together with the list of members and the Constitutions of the Society.

7. Audit. The Bursar's accounts are audited by a member of the Society appointed by the Council, at the close of the financial year, which expires on May 31.

N.B.—The Bursar deals with Membership and Subscriptions.

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT

AS the members of the Catholic Record Society may look back with legitimate pride on having continued to produce work during the trying years of the war, so in these days, whose difficulties are but too well known to all of us, we have the pleasure of finding ourselves able to carry on in a satisfactory manner. It is true that retrenchment will be necessary, and that it is in fact already being put into practice. Our coming volumes must be reduced in size: the number of illustrations must be smaller; fewer copies will be printed. With these and other economies we hope to maintain the supply of at least one valuable volume per year.

Nevertheless, your council consider that present circumstances justify, nay even constrain them to appeal to its members for all the support they can give. Working rates have more than doubled, and our subscription list, gradually thinned down by deaths and other causes, no longer recovers as easily as it used to do. Yet there are still many leading Catholics whose names are absent from our list; and there are probably others who would help us with donations towards printing, if friends would solicit them. The work of the Society has met with wide approval, from the Hierarchy, from students of history, and from genealogists who have been amongst its most steadfast, its warmest supporters. It deserves not only continuous but even increased support among Catholics.

Members who subscribe for back numbers are thereby increasing our means for further work. One volume is now out of print; but few remain of others. The value of scarce books is well known.

The volumes voted last year to the Library of Louvain University were duly sent to Mr Guppy of the John Rylands Library, and members will be pleased to hear that the appeal of the Governors elicited donations exceeding twenty thousand books from the United Kingdom.

Fr Pollen completed the documents relating to the Venerable Philip Howard, Earl of Arundel, Mrs Seymour Spencer kindly supplying the index, and it has been sent to members entitled to it. Still in the press are Miscellanea xii, an important volume; and Lancashire Registers iv, Mr Gillow supplying interesting historical and family notes.

Mr W. Sheldrake has again kindly audited the Bursar's accounts, which speak for themselves.

Again we have to record a large toll by death.

Dom Henry Norbert Birt, O.S.B., a member of the Council, had made his mark as a careful historian. When freed from his army chaplain's work he was looking forward to completing his editing of the Downside archives for us. It was not to be. He is succeeded by Dom Bede Camm, O.S.B. Colonel Francis Vaughan of Courtfield, K.C.P., Mrs John Humble of Stafford, Mrs Donald MacGregor of Ealing. The Very Rev. Francis Merrick Canon Wyndham, O.S.C., who had subscribed for his House at Bayswater, which continues the subscription. Mr Thomas Walmsley of Kirkham. The Right Rev. Bernard Ward, the first Bishop of Brentwood, our forty-second Founder, had brought clearly before us the state of Catholicity in our country before and after 1800. When presiding here on 19 July 1917, he expressed a hope that, when the necessarily laborious arrangements for the first settlement of his new diocese had been completed he might help in our work. He had indeed overlooked the proofs of a deceased contributor. The Right Rev. Nicholas Donnelly, Bishop of Canea and Auxiliary of Dublin. Mr Edmund Kirby of Oxtou. The Rev. George Teebay of Weld Bank.

These ten deaths, less the successions to Canon Wyndham and Fr Birt, leave a loss of eight.

Nine new members have joined and one who had retired has rejoined making a gain of ten, some calling for special mention.

His Grace the Archbishop of Cardiff makes the list of Archbishops of England and Wales on our Roll complete. The Rev. Edwin Henson of Nottingham has already thrown himself with vigour into our work by typing and presenting to the Society copies of several registers in the episcopal archives, some of them being previously unknown, although of interest. The Paulist Fathers of Austin, Texas, are a welcome addition from our cousins across the Atlantic. The list is wound up by such notable entries as the Library of London University, and the Royal Library of Copenhagen.

We have to regret the resignation of four members and one name has been removed.

The ultimate result is a loss of two reducing the membership to three hundred and forty-nine.

One member has compounded for a Life subscription.

Fr Bede Camm, O.S.B., has been elected to the Council in place of Fr Norbert Birt deceased, and Fr Fabian Dix, O.P., in place of Fr Robert Bracey, O.P.

The members of Council retiring by effluxion of time are the Very Rev. Edwin Hubert Canon Burton; Dom Bede Camm, O.S.B.; Major Francis J. A. Skeet; and Major Richard Trappes-Lomax.

PROGRESS

THE position of our Society as compared with other Record-printing Societies and the dates of foundation will be of interest. These Societies, even with a smaller membership, have done and are doing valuable work. They deserve more support.

TRANSACTIONS OF THE SIXTEENTH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The Sixteenth Annual Meeting of the Catholic Record Society was held at Archbishop's House, Westminster, by permission of the Cardinal Archbishop, on Tuesday the 20th July 1920.

His Eminence Cardinal Gasquet, the President of the Society, presided. There were also present: Sir Henry Jerningham, Bart.; the Rev. Fabian Dix, O.P.; the Rev. J. H. Pollen, S.J.; Mr G. F. Engelbach; Mr Gillow, Hon. Recorder; Mr Glencross, M.A., F.S.G.; Mr Lindsay, Hon. Bursar; the Rev. C. Moor, D.D., Chairman of the Society of Genealogists; Mr Munich, K.S.G.; Mr Roskell, Hon. Legal Adviser; Major Skeet; Mr J. P. Smith; Major Trappes-Lomax; Mr Trotman; and J. S. Hansom, Hon. Secretary.

Regrets for non-attendance were received from Admiral of the Fleet Lord Walter Kerr; Canon Burton; the Rev. Edwin Henson; Major C. J. Vaughan; and Dr Brierley, Hon. Secretary of the Lancashire Parish Register Society, on whom the University of Manchester has just conferred the degree of LL.D., for his work, who wrote—

"Pour encourager les autres I really must tell you this. Yesterday I received a cheque for £500 from one of our Lancs. Par. Reg. Soc. members . . . I have a promise of £300 from another member, and lately received £100. Now get our C.R.S. members to top this, and printing will proceed gaily."*

Cardinal Gasquet expressed his pleasure at being again able to preside, and at finding progress being made in these times of soaring prices. In Italy it was even worse. He spoke of the difficulties under which the Vatican archives were being carried on. The continuance was almost entirely due to the generosity of the Holy Father, to whom no appeal was ever made in vain. There had been an increase of no less than 600,000 lire spent owing to the increases granted by the Pope to employees in the library and museums.

This year there had been inaugurated a system of collating the contents of the library and the archives, placing in the former such volumes as students would naturally look for there. Already 1,200 volumes had been transferred, which left more room for dealing with the archives, many of which had been stored in the roof, and were apt to be damaged. Many sets had been completed, including the Diaries of the Popes.

They had come to an arrangement with the Italian Government for the exchange of ecclesiastical and purely secular papers. The papal registers from Eugenius IV to Pius IX had fallen into the possession of the Italian state, but these were now coming back to the Vatican, in exchange for documents about temporal affairs.

They were now engaged on a stack of papers, the size of a large room, which had been taken to Paris by Napoleon and returned in 1819. He himself had just finished sorting many papers, eight or nine large boxes dealing with England, and four or five dealing with Ireland. He hoped soon to have a complete record of the Papal Visitors sent over to this country. Such valuable papers would become available for the publications of the Catholic Record Society. The sorting, indexing, binding and arrangement of all the documents entailed heavy work, but would prove of inestimable value to the historian.

* Some of our own Lancashire members have, as we all know, already set a fine example; but the challenge of our tenth Founder is stirring. Will there be a rush to take up the gauntlet?—J.S.H.

His Eminence expressed his pleasure at finding the Society firmly established, and proposed the adoption of the Annual Report and Financial Statement.

In seconding, Mr Trotman said there was no need to dwell on the difficulties of the times through which we were passing. They met us at every step and in our own households. The motion was carried unanimously.

Mr Lindsay, the Bursar, moved the alterations in Constitutions 4 and 5, which had been approved by the Council and issued to members with the summons to the meeting.* He explained that 21 volumes had been issued to subscribers in 16 years, two of which were gifts. Two more were in the press, one of which was a gift from the same benefactors as the previous ones. Members therefore could not complain of not having received full value for their subscriptions. It had been hoped to keep up three volumes in every two years, and on one occasion four had been given in two years. The Society had however got into arrears before the War; Vol. xvii (second for the year 1913-14) came out in 1915, and Vol. xxi (the last issued for 1916-17) only came out in 1919. Volumes were therefore due for three years. Consequently under the Constitutions new members could not hope to get a Volume without paying for three years. It was important to attract new members, for many had been lost by death and resignation. All that he asked is that old members agree that they have received the value of their subscriptions, and that in future all members not in arrear shall receive volumes as they come out. It is difficult for a bursar to ask for arrears of subscriptions when the Society is in arrear with its work; but, as a rule, the members have paid up very regularly.

Mr Engelbach, seconding the motion, endorsed all Mr Lindsay had said.

Mr Hansom, Secretary, considered there was no call for such a drastic change in the Constitutions, as the financial statement in the hands of members showed a cash balance of £470 and the investment account £667, of which £137 belonged to capital, leaving £1,000 available for the work of the Society, without receipts for the current year which could not yet be assessed. He proposed, and Mr Gillow, Recorder, seconded the following amendment—
 "This General Meeting of the Catholic Record Society regrets but fully recognises the difficulties of keeping up the full output of volumes hitherto given to members; but sees no reason for depriving members of all volumes for their three years' subscriptions. One volume for the first two of the three subscriptions, and a smaller volume for the third subscription seems a better solution of the difficulty."

Mr Smith spoke in opposition to the amendment, and denied that the old subscribers would suffer in any way. There had not been any definite promise as to output, and the fact that the Society had issued ten volumes in five successive years showed that our most sanguine hopes had been more than realised. He had not been present when the resolution of the Council had been passed; and, although there were some objections, it appeared to be a fair way out of our difficulties.

There being only two voting for the amendment it was lost; and the original motion was carried with one dissentient.

Mr Munich proposed the re-election to the Council of the Very Rev. Canon Burton, Rev. Bede Camm, O.S.B., Major Skeet, and Major Trappes-Lomax. Mr Glencross seconded, and it was resolved accordingly.

The Rev. Dr Moor remarked that Cardinal Gasquet's account of the Vatican archives was most interesting and made his mouth water. He moved and Mr Trotman seconded a vote of thanks to the Council and Officers for their work during the past year. This was carried.

A vote of thanks to Cardinal Gasquet for presiding, and to the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster for graciously giving the use of the library for the meeting, was proposed by Major Trappes-Lomax, seconded by Mr Smith and carried.

Cardinal Gasquet in returning thanks, said he knew the keen interest Cardinal Bourne, absent on account of the funeral of the Empress Eugénie at Farnborough, took in the Society's work.

THE CATHOLIC RECORD SOCIETY MEETING AT THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS, LIVERPOOL, JULY 31, 1920.

The chair was taken by our Recorder, Mr Joseph Gillow. Present—Sir Henry Jerningham, Mr Gervase Elwes, Mr F. J. Weld, Mr L. C. Lindsay, Mr J. P. Smith, Dom Bede Camm, O.S.B., Dom Odo Blundell, O.S.B., the Rev. John Gardner, Mrs Gilbertson, and others. An address was delivered by Father J. H. Pollen, on Catholic Records. He said that the Society might be said to exist in order to make good the immense lacuna in Catholic Records during dark times which elapsed between the violent breach with Rome under Henry VIII, and the removal of Catholic disabilities, under the Georges. During these two and a half centuries it was impossible to preserve Catholic records regularly in England. Though there were Protestant Records about Catholics in England, they were, of course, very hostile. To fill up the gap we had the papers preserved in the Seminaries abroad, in the Vatican, and also stray papers preserved at home. The Record Society had published many such records, of all dates; also Registers beginning in 1697, 1705, etc., and gradually becoming more regular as time went on. The speaker then briefly indicated the various subjects which the Society's volumes had illustrated—Genealogy, Memoirs, Church History, the English Martyrs, Obituaries, Bibliography, Relics, etc. Father Bede Camm spoke of the new papers about the Martyrs lately bequeathed to Downside Abbey. Mr Gillow desired some printed tract to give a clear account of the Society's work.

NOTICES

Members are requested to call the attention of their friends to the Society and its work. A copy of the current subscription form is enclosed to members this year, in case they desire to introduce a friend. It has however been decided to print the records of the Franciscan Nuns at Taunton, in lieu of the last Douay Diary. It shows also how back numbers are procurable by members desiring to complete a set; but it must be clearly understood that it is liable to alteration without notice.

Transcripts of interesting unpublished documents ready for the press, together with the loan of the originals for the purpose of collation, are invited. It is desired always to have material for half a dozen volumes ready for printing, as special donations for printing may enable the output of work to be increased.

Offers of help in transcribing documents, especially in the Public Offices in London, where the greater part of the documents relating to the country are stored, are invited. Parish priests are especially requested to provide exact copies of old registers in their custody, or give facilities for this being done.

Serious loss of time and expense have been incurred in some cases by manuscript being sent incomplete or modified. It is desired to impress on transcribers that papers should be complete, without excisions, verbatim et literatim, although they may not agree with modern ideas. Merit lies in their absolute integrity and identity, as far as modern printing will allow.

Members desirous of paying annual subscriptions through their bankers can be supplied with a "Banker's Order," on application to the Bursar or Secretary.

Changes of address should be notified to the Secretary.
